The Fra Magazine is a Journal of Affirmation—a Booster. It speaks of persons, places and principles in a frank, free and open-hearted way. It tells the truth about things. The Editor's pen is never gagged, chained or chloroformed. It is a Magazine of Merit. Elbert Hubbard edits this Magazine and contributes each month a philosophical stimulant—The Open Road. People who know, proclaim The Fra the finest Magazine in America, in both text and typography. Folks on the Upward March read—The Fra!

The Roycroft Book—Beautifully bound in Limp Leather, silk-lined with marker. Many are printed in bold-faced type, on Holland Hand-Made, Watermarked Paper, and a few are hand illumined. All are works of Art.

 Review.

Golden Text—They that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word. Acts viii:4.

The following review scheme can be used with profit by all the newspaper clubs who are taking up the Bible studies, whether having actually studied the eleven lessons here reviewed, or only one of them, or whether this is the first lesson which has captured a reader's attention; for while it is a "review," it is also complete in itself.

The date and title of each lesson and where found, the Golden Text, and one question on each lesson follow.

Jan. 3—Acts I:1-14. The Ascension of Our Lord. Golden Text: Luke xxiv: 51. It came to pass while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

Verses 10, 11—Would the coming of the Spirit of Jesus on the day of Pentecost, be the return of Jesus as these two men meant?

Jan. 10—Acts II:1-21. The Descent of the Holy Spirit. Golden Text. John xiv:16, 17. I will pray the Father and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever, even the Spirit of Truth.

Verses 6-12—An educated ministry is desirable but which will make the most converts, a man with fair intelligence and a common school education, filled with the Holy Spirit, or an university graduate lacking that experience?

Jan. 17—Acts II:22-47. The Beginning of the Christian Church. Golden Text. Acts II:42. They continued steadfastly in the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread and in prayers.

Verse 22—How is it that Jesus has impressed Himself upon the world as no other man has ever done, and that he has swayed the hearts of the lowly and mighty alike, and that His influence is increasing with the years?

Jan. 24—Acts III:1-26. The Lame Man Healed. Golden Text. Acts III:16. His name, through faith in His name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know.

Verse 6—Need the lack of money or ability ever prevent any man from doing the work in life which God has appointed him to do?

Jan. 31—Acts IV:1-31. The Trial of Peter and John. Golden Text. Acts IV: 31. They were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

Verses 1-3—Have priests and preachers, in the past, been quick or slow, to see God's new revelations of truth, whether in science or theology?

Feb. 7—Acts IV:32 to v:11. True and False Brotherhood. Golden Text. Prov. xii:22. Lying lips are an abomination unto the Lord; but they that deal truly are His delight.

Verses 34, 35—Is faithfulness to God a sure cure for shortness of money?

Feb. 14—Acts v:17-42. The Apostles Imprisoned. Golden Text. Matt. v:10. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake; for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven.

Verses 34-40—Is it not true that the heretics of one generation have been the saints of the next?

Feb. 21—Acts vi:1 to vii:3. Stephen, the First Christian Martyr. Golden Text. Acts vii:59. They stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

Verses 11-13—When a man with right views of truth, gets angry at the man with wrong views and persecutes him, which the latter takes with meekness, which is likely the better man of the two?

Feb. 28—Acts viii:4-25. The Gospel in Samaria. Golden Text. Acts viii:6. The people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

Verses 9-11—Is there any evidence to believe that there are, or ever have been, persons with the power claimed by witches, conjurers, fortune tellers and similar fakirs?

March 7—Acts viii:26-40. Philip and the Ethiopian. Golden Text. John v:39. Search the scriptures for in them ye think ye have eternal life; and they are they which testify of me.

Verse 26.—May any person, who is not playing double with God, safely trust "the inward voice" to direct as to outward circumstances?

March 14—Acts ix:31-43. Aeneas and Dorcas. Golden Text. Acts ix:34. And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole; arise and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

Verses 36-38—How do you classify those who content themselves with going to church and prayer meeting, and talking, and praying, but are not following Jesus, in going about doing good? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Roycroft Philosophy

By Fra Elbertus.

As love goes to those who do not lie in wait for it, so does the big reward gravitate to the patient man.

Everything is comparative. If you have not seen the best it is quite easy to be content with something else.

Every spirit makes its house; but afterwards the house confines the spirit, so you would better build well.

Reflect upon your present blessings—of which every man has many, not on your past misfortunes, of which all men have some.

Upbraid no man for his weakness, neither report it to disparage him nor to advance thyself; but counsel him gently and help him wisely.

The Mintage of Wisdom is to know that rest is rust, and that Real Life lies in Love, Laughter and Work.

It has been said, Opportunity knocks but once; let him who would succeed be ready to boost that knock.

He who influences the thought of his time, influences all the times that follow. He has made his impress on eternity.

The ideas that benefit a man are seldom welcomed by him on first presentation.

The success of every great man hinges right on this one thing—to pick your men to do the work. The effort of any one man counts for so very little. It all depends on the selection and management of men to carry out your plans. In every successful concern, whether it be bank, school, factory, steamship company or railroad, the spirit of one man runs through and animates the entire institution. The success or failure of the enterprise turns on the mental, moral, and spiritual qualities of this one man. And the leader who can imbue an army of workers with a spirit of earnest fidelity to duty, an unswerving desire to do the thing that should be done, and always with animation, kindness, courtesy and good cheer, must be ranked as one of the great men of the earth.
