On Sunday, Mar. 21, Mrs. Wm. Metzler entertained in honor of Mr. Metzler's fifty-second birthday anniversary. A delicious dinner was served—a dinner such as only a clever housewife can provide. Table decorations were in yellow and green, daffodils being very much in evidence. Favors were daintily tinted daffodils tied with green and yellow ribbon. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lorence, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Riddell, Misses Hazel and Mabel Lorence and Ruby Shearer. After having spent a delightful day, the guests departed, wishing Mr. Metzler "Many Happy Returns"

If the Herald is late in reaching you this week, be lenient to the editor for his better half, and main support, is on the sick list.

Mrs. Will Mack returned home Monday accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. George Bennett and two children, of Eugene. The latter expects to visit about two weeks before returning home.

When you shave yourself that is your business. When I can sell you the necessary articles for shaving that is my business. Now you are next. Come and see me. C. E. Force, Merchant Barber, Monmouth, Oregon.

I wish to announce to the public that I have again taken up dress-making and will make special inducements for the month of April. Mrs. H. K. Sickafoose, Corner of Powell and Eckles.

Remember when you are talking to your neighbor about the Herald, that it is strictly opposed to the extension of the saloon, has no patent inside and allows no patent medicine ads in its columns. Things worth remembering in a moral community.

The fine spring weather we have been having the first of the week is bringing the roses to the cheeks of the maidens and songs of the meadowlarks on the balmy air. All nature seems gay, even the old maids are caroling lays of gladness and all is music as we hail the beautiful spring. The breeze is laden with the perfume of green onions and the hens are laying around almost any old place.
