W. C. T. U. Institute.

The Polk county institute of the W. C. T. U. was held at Independence Wednesday April 21. The morning session was given over to the discussion of plans of work for the local unions.

The afternoon devotional services were conducted by Mrs. Helen Harford, state vice president.

The following subjects were then presented for discussion.

1. Retaining and Interesting the Young People.
2. Can a Christian Consistently Sell or Use Tobacco?
3. The Value of Temperance Literature.

Mrs. Kirk, of Independence, then ably presented the subject: "Temperance in the Sunday School," after which Mrs. Henrietta Brown, State President, gave a short talk on the state work.

Mrs. Harford in presenting the subject "When Does Oregon Expect Prohibition?" gave some good reasons for expecting that Oregon is going dry and that very soon. Stating that a campaign was to be instituted whose slogan would be "Oregon dry in 1910."

Delegates were present from Dallas, Falls City, Monmouth, Louisville and Independence.

At the evening session Mrs. Harford gave a most interesting and instructive lecture on the subject "The Government to Be."

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved: That we regret the enforced absence of the County President, Mrs. Chloe L. Butz, because of the illness of her father and mother and extend to her and her family our sympathy.

Resolved that the thanks of this institute are extended to the Independence Union for their complete arrangements, to the Church and to any and all who have as-
