Lee Whitcombe is visiting the Mr. Hustons, of Portland. He is looking for work in a machine shop.

Things have been quiet in town for a couple of weeks for the reason that the farmers are all busy with their spring work.

County Supt. Seymour was in attendance at the meeting of school officers, parents and teachers, Friday and Saturday.

We have had to refuse job work the first of the month on account of lack of help, but are now in a position to take all that comes.

Mrs. L. L. Whiteaker returned the latter part of last week from an extended visit with her niece, Mrs. Lije Johnson, of Meca, Washington.

Mrs. A. N. Halleck was called to the bedside of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Halleck, of Newport, who is very low and there is little hope for her recovery.

Mrs. F. E. Borneman and little daughter Ruth returned last Friday from Salem, where she has spent several weeks visiting her sister, of that place.

Mrs. George Archibald and little daughter returned to their home in St. Johns last week, after spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Pettit returned the latter part of last week from Corvallis where they have been looking at some town property with the intention of buying.

C. C. Sloan is having his big two story house painted. It is one of the largest farm houses in this part of the county. O. C. Zook and Lloyd Mason are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Butler and daughter, of Washington, spent a few days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Butler, of Talmage. They are on their way home from California where Mrs. Butler has been in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. LaDow, of Falls City, came down Monday and left Tuesday morning accompanied by Mrs. Sarah Davis, for Eugene to attend the sick bed of their brother-in-law, Mr. McPherson, who was expected to live but a short time.

The Herald job office delivered last week 5000 eight page folders to Young & Irvine, the enterprising real estate men, of Independence. This week we are delivering 10,000 letterheads to the Independence Commercial Club; also 8000 receipts and warrants.

The Herald wishes to announce that it will have a complete lot of samples of programs for commencement exercises, which will be printed at reasonable prices. They will be here in about two weeks. Come in and look them over. It will be the finest lot of samples in Polk county. They are coming direct from Chicago, from one of the largest manufacturers in the United States.

Work on the ice plant has been temporarily suspended waiting the arrival of the machinery, which is expected in about a week.

G. T. Boothby was shearing sheep last week. He tried a shearing machine and then went back to primitive methods, which he says are the best in this country.

Milton Force came down from eastern Oregon the latter part of last week and will visit the home folks awhile. He is thinking of taking up the life of a commercial traveler.

Apples, pears and other fruits are now in bloom and the blossoms on the maples make fine feeding grounds for the busy honey bees who in turn make the air resound with the musical whirr of their gauzy wings.

In commenting on the high price of flour and the probability of a raise in bread, W. J. Mulkey (formerly of Bill & Dammitt) said that the only difference he would make would be to keep the yeast out of the bread for that was what made the flour raise.

K. H. Sickafosse came down from Phy Simpson's logging camp Saturday for a brief visit with his family. He reports things moving along nicely up that way. However he said it looked good to get out among the settlements again and seeing things growing so nicely.

The business of the Creamery is increasing right along. Twenty-two new cream cans were received the first of the week to accommodate the new patrons that have been added lately. Let everyone speak a good word for manufacturing institutions and they will help us make Monmouth a place noted for prosperous people.

In our last issue we failed to note that a special tax of five mills was voted at the school meeting. This will enable the district to keep up the standard of its school work, having the best teachers in the state. It will also make it possible to run the Normal through another year. There are few districts in the state that have voted as large a tax and we feel proud of the patrons of our district.

Monmouth Heights.

Arthur Grooms and wife, of Cochrane, were seen in these parts Wednesday.
