J. M. Staats was placing telephones in Monmouth on the independent line yesterday. He reports a rapid increase in business.

Judge W. H. Hollis, of Forest Grove, was in the city Wednesday looking after business connected with the Bankers & Merchants Insurance Co., of that city. The Judge reports business good, and judging from outward appearances, we should say he has not missed a meal since we saw him last, fifteen months ago. The Judge is a genial wholesouled fellow whom it is good to meet. May his shadow never grow less.

Mrs. J. W. Rogers, of Corvallis, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Lucas.

Miss Edith Wolverton was a business visitor to the county seat the fore part of the week.

The following speakers have been selected from the Senior class by the faculty for the commencement exercises: Miss Ida Goynes, Tillamook City, Tillamook county; Miss Fannie Fisher, of Haines, Baker county; Miss Alice Rasmussen, Corbett, Multnomah county; Miss Esther Larson, of Astoria, Clatsop county; Percy M. Stroud, Pleasant Hill, Lane county. The selections to be made by the class will be announced later.

Ladies Aid Meeting.

Did you see those several buggy and carriage loads of people going out of town eastward Wednesday morning about 9 o'clock? They were not bound for Independence nor Salem, but for the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wood. The Ladies Aid of the Christian church to the number of about 25, together with a few of the brethren, spent the day with their pastor and wife. Mr. Wood said while he was not a competent judge of the quality of the quilting and sewing done by either the ladies or brethren, though Mrs. Wood said it was all right; yet he was a very competent judge of the good dinner they brought, and very much regretted his inability, because of lack of capacity, to do justice to the many good things.

Such gatherings cannot but bind the church and pastor closer together and put spice and sunshine in life.
