ple all manner of happiness and prosperity.

The Monmouth Hotel passed into the hands of D. M. Hampton on the first of this month. He has closed down the old Hampton hotel and henceforth there will be but one hotel in town. Mr. Hampton has been in the hotel business here for the past sixteen years and to try to give the people here any talk as to his ability to handle the hotel business, would be superfluous.

W. E. Smith has accepted a position as book-keeper in the Polk County Bank. Mr. Smith is a graduate of the Normal and also as the Behnke-Walker Business College, where he taught the greater part of the past year. He takes the place made vacant by the resignation of P. G. Schreuders, who will soon leave for his old home on Siuslaw bay.

The Woodmen of the World, assisted by the Circle held a very enjoyable social at their hall Wednesday evening. Among other features of the evening were, a solo by Miss Lora Craven, song by the Glee Club, talks by Rev. Wood and Prof. Briggs. After the literary program the guests repaired to the banquet hall where tables were spread for 100 and it is reported that there were several cases of stomach trouble caused by overeating, superinduced by the most excellent vias.

P. H. Burt returned Monday from Yoncalla, where he went to attend the funeral of his father, G. A. Burt, who died at that place last Friday. Mr. Burt was one of the early pioneers of this coast, having come to California in 1849. On account of poor health there he came to Oregon in 1952, settling on a homestead that included the land where the prosperous little city of Yoncalla now stands. He was a native of Boston and at the time of his death was 82 years old. His wife, who was a daughter of Charles Applegate of pioneer history, preceded him to the Great Beyond some forty years ago. He leaves five children. Mr. Burt was known for his strict integrity and helpfulness. He will be sadly missed from the fast thinning ranks of the old pioneers.

ed her 71st birthday Saturday, May 29 by a family reunion. All the children were present. There were 17 grand children present. A big dinner was served, after which pictures were taken of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Messner, of McMinnville, entertained the Crab club, of this city at their home Friday May 28. Mr. Hirschberg took the invited guests to McMinnville in his gasoline car, which were, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Butler, Mr. and Mr. P. H. Drexler, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Kirkland, Hirschberg and Ross Nelson. They were royally entertained.

Dr. E. N. Hutchinson, of Portland, the health inspector, was in our city last week. Dr. Butler took him to Rickreall to inspect some cattle belonging to Mr. Burch, and found they did not have tuberculosis, as had been reported.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dickinson were very much surprised the last of the week when about 35 of their friends came out to celebrate their Pearl wedding. They were presented with one dozen pearl handled fruit knives and many other articles. A mock ceremony was performed by Dr. Dunsmore, of the Presbyterian church. The little crowd then served refreshments and a very pleasant evening was spent by all present.
