Peterson and Tucker sold the J. L. Murdock place in the south part of town to Sam Jackson, of Corvallis last week.

C. L. Hawley and family were up from McCoy for an over Sunday visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hawley.

The recent rains and the following warm weather has made the farmers happy, for there is now no reason why there should not be bountiful crops of all kinds.

Miss Luella Brewster, of the Central school in Eugene, and who was a delegate to the Rebekah Assembly at Albany, came down for a visit with relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gwin returned to their home in town this week and will remain for the summer. Mrs. Gwin has somewhat recovered from her injury, but is not entirely well yet.

Herman Wunder was in town from his farm the first of the week and reports his wife and daughter have taken a trip to eastern Washington to visit with relatives for the next couple of months.

Mrs. Lula Wolverton and daughter Margaret, of Spokane, were here the first of the week visiting with postmaster Wolverton and family. Mrs. Wolverton has been visiting relatives in Albany for the past few weeks.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Evangelical church met Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage. The offices of president and secretary were filled by Mrs. L. C. Hoover and Mrs. G. W. Baun. The society adjourned to meet at the church the first Tuesday in July.

The foundation for the new flouring mill is being laid and the superstructure will soon be up. Mr. Stone reports that he expects to have the mill ready to operate on this season's crop and will have his warehouse ready for the wheat crop as soon as it is harvested.

Mrs. Sarah Davis returned the latter part of last week from an extended visit with her son at Central Point. She reports a splendid time and many interesting trips taken to adjacent territory, among them being one to Jacksonville. She saw some of the noted orchards in that part of the state, some of which have sold for $1500 per acre, but she saw nothing as good as Polk county and there seems to be little doubt on the matter of our having the best part of the state, as Mrs. Davis' opinion is voiced by nearly everyone who goes outside for an outing or visit, all returning to this part of the state with the same feelings, of "Home Sweet Home."

Herbert Powell is out again after his recent illness.

A. N. Halleck made a business trip to Salem Tuesday.

Mrs. French and daughter, of Little Falls, Wash., came last week for a visit with her niece, Mrs. A. E. Brewster. They will go from here to Eugene to visit with relatives there, before returning home.

Mrs. Dewitt, of this city, has gone to Falls City to be with her grandson, Murrel Singleton, who is seriously ill having been crushed between a freight car and dray. It is hoped that he will recover soon.

Reports coming in indicate that the cherry crop will be up to the average and the prune crop will be large, but apples seem to be spotted and will not be a heavy crop. This is mainly owing to the extremely late frosts which caught a good many of the early apples.

The floor in the post office has been repaired this week. C. H. Newman engineered the job and it has improved the appearance of the floor materially. Taken in connection with the new coat of stain and varnish that has been applied to the wood work and the kalsomine on the walls and ceiling make it look splendid.

Winter, the photographer, and family were up from Portland last week, accompanied by Miss Ida Waller, visiting at the home of T. O. Waller. They came out in Mr. Winter's big touring car and made numerous excursions into the country round about. Mrs. Winter and Miss Waller are nieces of Mr. Waller and needless to say he enjoyed their visit.

Out at the Creamery there is considerable activity these days. A new well is to be sunk in order to furnish a plentiful supply of water. In sinking about forty feet deeper on the old well this spring, the main veins were cut off by the casing and thus shut off a considerable of the former supply. The ice plant cannot be operated until the new well is completed.

A. B. Westfall brought in one of the first strawberries of the season Saturday. It was mammoth one and finely colored. Monmouth is nicely located for the production of fine strawberries. The market has been well stocked this week with home grown berries and to say that they are better than the California product, is putting it extremely mild. The
