Sunday School Questions

June 20th, 1909.

(Copyright, 1909, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)
 Review.

Golden Text—With great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus Acts iv:33.

The following review is planned for all who are taking up these Bible Studies, whether having actually studied the eleven lessons here reviewed or only a part of them. Even if this is the first lesson which has captured a reader's attention it can be made a profitable lesson in itself.

The date and title of each lesson, and where found, the Golden Text and one question for each lesson follow:

April 4—Acts x:1-48 Peter and Cornelius Golden Text Acts x:35. In every nation he that feareth Him, and worketh righteousness is accepted of Him.

Verses 1-2—Can you give a good reason why God to-day is not as well pleased with a devout Roman Catholic as he is with a devout Protestant, or vice versa?

April 11—1 Cor. xv:12-28. Easter Lesson Golden Text 1 Cor xv:20. Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.

Verse 12—Can you mention a single nation or tribe or people in the past, or the present, that has not believed, or does not believe in life after death in some shape?

April 18—Acts ix:1-30—The Conversion of Saul Golden Text Acts ix:4. He fell to the earth and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

Verses 1-2—How do you account for Saul's bitter hatred for Christians before his conversion, and that after he became a Christian he showed such a spirit of love toward those who were not Christians? (This question is to be answered in writing by members of the club.)

April 25—Acts xi:19-30; xii:25. The Gospel in Antioch. Golden Text Acts xi:26. The disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

Verses 29-30—Should the Church of Christ today be a practical brotherhood caring for one another, and helping each other financially, and in every other way as the need may be?

May 2—Acts xiii:1-12 Paul's First Missionary Journey—Cyprus. Golden Text Mark xvi:15. Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.

Verse 3—It is clearly the duty of the present day church to send missionaries to foreign countries and into new districts; is it equally the duty of all men to help support such missionaries?

May 9—Acts xiii:13-52. Paul's First Missionary Journey—Antioch in Pisidia. Golden Text Acts xiii:49. The word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

Verse 14—If a professed Christian does not attend church, and act like a Christian when away from home, is he a real Christian when at home, no matter how he may act when there?

May 16—Acts xiv:1-28. Paul's First Missionary Journey—Iconium. Golden Text Ps. xvi:5. All the gods of the nations are idols; but the Lord made the heavens.

Verses 1-2—Was the unbelief of the Jews a matter of the intellect through lack of evidence; or was it a matter of the heart; that is, a result of their rebellion against God?

May 23—Acts xv:1-35. The Council at Jerusalem. Golden Text Acts xv:11. We believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

Verses 6-17—Is actual experience of God, and his feelings with us, conclusive proof of the will of God, in the matters which the experience covers?

May 30—Jas. ii:14:26. Believing and Doing Golden Text Jas. ii:20. Faith without works is dead.

Verse 14—Can a man have true faith in God if he is not filled with love to his fellows, and doing all he can to help them?

June 6—Jas. iii:1-12. The Power of the Tongue. Golden Text Prov. xxi:23. Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.

Verse 2—Is the control of the tongue the key to the control of the entire man? Give your reasons.

June 13—Heb. xi:1-40. Heroes of Faith. Golden Text Heb. xi:1. Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Verses 1-3—If a desirable thing is firmly possessed by faith, does that give as much, or similar satisfaction, as the possession of the thing itself?

Flower Mission Day

Flower Mission day was observed by the Independence W. C. T. U. at their regular meeting at the Evangelical church Friday June 4 and was led by Mrs. Helen Kirk. A very interesting program was rendered with appropriate song and scripture reading by Mrs. Lena Moseman. Extracts from Jennie Cassidy's life were read and many brought flowers made into dainty bouquets tied with "the white ribbon" with scripture verse cards attached. These were carried by some of the little children of the L. T. L. to the sick and aged.

Deep rooted in the human heart is the love of flowers, voiceless though they are, they have a subtle power to thrill all hearts. Beloved by little children, cherished by serious, deep-thinking men, they are the only things in life that do not change as we grow older. Wherever the magic of the letters W. C. T. U. is known, the ninth of June is held in loving remembrance as the birthday of the gentle superintendent of flower mission work, from whose couch of invalidism have gone forth influences to brighten and bless the whole round world. It is kept this year with a deeper tenderness than ever before, for she who has been its inspiration and strength, now watches over it from the Heavenly mansions. What it meant to Jennie Cassidy is best told in the words of her sister: "Jennie Cassidy's heart and soul were in her Flower Mission work. In her own mind she saw a great future for that branch of Christian ministry. It was, to her thought, one of the highest, as well as the most attainable forms of missionary work. She saw its capacities as if they were present already; and with her to inspire, I feel sure a great army was ready to march; and I know they would have carried the citadel by storm. Such a form of ministry was peculiarly in harmony with her own feelings and her methods, for these were the

MORE COFFEE TALK

Dear Ladies:-

Nothing comes closer home to your husband than the kind of coffee he drinks. Right here is where the problem of taste comes in, and discriminating coffee drinkers are always alert to get hold of a brand that has just the quality that goes to the right spot.

But the problem does not end there, some brands are one thing to-day and quite another tomorrow, and how could you hope to please with such a brand.

It has always been my idea to get a coffee that pleases and keeps the same quality day in and day out, year after year, and my years of experience handling this coffee has proven that we have it in Chase & Sanborn's Blends.

Don't forget the price—twenty-five and thirty-five cents. Once used, always used. We are getting bouquets on this coffee every day.

Yours very truly,

Sharples' Tubular Cream Separator

The Tubular skims closer, under all conditions than any "bucket bowl" machine; produces a perfectly smooth frothless cream, which will yield more butter than it is possible to get by any other machine. Other points are: Runs with one-third less power than other separators, has low supply tank and can be cleaned in one to three minutes, or one-tenth the time it takes on other makes.

methods of love and wooing, such as nurture the flowers and cause the bud to bring forth and blossom. Her methods never were to set foot down and prohibit, but to "glide into one's darker sharpness and steal away their sharpness ere they were aware."

Airlie

Cecil Staats has returned home on a visit to his parents.

C. T. Allen made a business trip to Monmouth this week.

Asa Staats and wife brought a fine piano from Dallas this week.

Mrs. Chandler's nieces from Independence are visiting with her.

Stanly Evans has been quite sick, but is able to be around again.

Mrs. Blodgett of Lewisville, made a visit to Monmouth last week.

The work on the new store is moving right along; they have the frame done already.

Emmett Norton has returned home from Corvallis, where has been attending the O. A. C.

We are having a nice little rain at present writing. "Hope it continues for a week," is the cry of every farmer.

There was a dance at Asa Staats' which was enjoyed by all who attended. There will be another soon we hear.

Altha Hooker died at her home at Falls City June 14th. She has hosts of friends who will mourn her early death. Her family have the sympathy of all.

The Picnic at Shady Lane, last Saturday was well represented by Airlie residents, who pronounced it a very enjoyable affair. The program was excellent, and the contests were very laughable, especially the pillow fight. There was a horse race in which Art Miller's mare took the purse.

Monmouth Heights.

William Griffith was a pleasant caller at Dallas Sunday.

Nella Shipley, of Monroe, is visiting her father Mr. A. J. Shipley and family.

A. J. Shipley made a business trip to the county seat Saturday.

Elmer Griffith, of Rickreall, spent Sunday with his brother Alfred.

Wilma Lee, of Cochrane visited with her uncle, Dave Olin and family the past week.

A. B. Westfall and family, of Monmouth, were in this vicinity the first of the week.

Wm. Bingman, of near Salem, has been visiting with his brother George the past week.

Clem Fishback is visiting with his Uncle Harmon Scott and family at Colfax, Washington.

A large crowd from here attended the Shady Lane picnic Saturday June 12. All report having a fine time.

Will Fishback who is helping Mr. Roser build a barn for Black Bros., of near Independence, visited with his parents Sunday.

George Sullivan, of Monmouth, James Goodman, and sis'er Mrs. E. Clarke, made a business trip to Blodgett Valley the last of the week.
