Monmouth should now devote her energies to getting the best water system and electric lighting system in the valley. With the building of the new railroad from Simpson's to the Coast there will be an almost inexhaustible supply of timber opened up and with a little of the right kind of enterprise there is no reason why we should not have a big sawmill located right in town where fuel for furnishing power, would cease to be a question for argument. The income from the lights would more than pay the running expenses of both plants, besides it would give the city a fine supply of arc lights for the streets free of cost.

After Many Years.

Wm. E. Martin, from Pittsburg, Penn., arrived Monday for a visit at the home of his uncle, David S. Martin, north of Monmouth. This is the first time they have met for more than forty years.

Mr. Martin made Oregon his home for a short time, about twenty years ago, but returned to Pittsburg, and now like so many others who have tried "Sunny Oregon" once, has returned to make his home within her borders.

His family will follow in a short time, glad to be once more in the land of fruits and flowers.

Mrs. Fyffe Declined.

Some years ago it was decided by the navy department that the presence of the wives of the naval officers at the Asiatic station detracted too much from their official duties. So a general order was issued to the fleet directing that the wives be sent home. Admiral Fyffe, who was in command of the fleet, received the order in due time, and it came back to the navy department indorsed as follows:

1st. Indorsement.
Asiatic Fleet, Yokohama, Japan.
(1) Respectfully returned to the secretary of the navy.
(2) I have delivered this order to Mrs. Fyffe, and she refuses to go.
(3) Further instructions are requested.
Respectfully,
(Signed) JOSEPH FIFFE.

The Ideal Trunk.

The lady had looked at about twenty trunks without finding one to her satisfaction. At length the salesman suggested that if she could give him an idea of what she had in mind he might be able to suit her.
"I want," said the lady impressively, "a smaller trunk than this, but one that holds more."—St. Louis Republic.

Pays to Advertise.

"When I was doing business in a very small way," remarked a shrewd merchant, "I advertised that I had no branch stores."

"Well?"
"That made people think I was running a classy shop, and pretty soon I was able to open branch stores. See?"
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Restraining Recollections.

"They say I'm a little close," said Mr. Cumrox thoughtfully.
"Well, you don't exactly spend it as if it were water."
"I try to. But, you see, I used to live in Arizona, where water is scarce."
—Washington Star.
