

Local and Personal.

C. G. Griffo is laying mains on Broad street this week.

Mr. Putmans have friends from eastern Oregon visiting them.

Lee Whitcomb has returned from his bicycle trip to Portland.

Loyd Huston and sister, of Portland, are here visiting friends.

Do you know the Herald and Pacific Monthly together cost you but $1.65 for one year?

Miss Flora Gill, of Fulton, Missouri, is visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Wood.

Fred Moseman is filling his silo with green vetch to feed his dairy cows during the dry season.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. S. Moore left Tuesday for Seattle to attend the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition.

W. W. Rowell returned to Albany the first of the week after an extended visit with his daughter, Mrs. T. A. Riggs.

Dr. W. C. Shearer and wife came up from Portland last week and spent the Fourth at the home of J. B. V. Butler, visiting with his sister, Miss Ruby Shearer, formerly critic teacher at the Normal.

Sunday evening the long delayed rain began and lasted until Tuesday. While a small amount of hay may be spoiled, yet the good resulting to late grain, hops and potatoes, will more than offset the loss.

The parties who broke the electric light globes on Main street are known and unless they come forward and pay the costs they will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. By order of the Mayor.

W. M. Wolverton, of Cascade, B. C., came last week to visit his mother, M. J. Wolverton and brother O. A. Wolverton. It is nearly seven years since he has been here and is able to note a good many changes in that time.

Rev. J. A. Goode, of Lents, made a flying trip here last Thursday to visit his son Hubert and call on old friends. Hubert took him to Dallas in the evening. From there he went to Salem to visit his parents. His health is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Warfel have returned from Newport, where they spent a few days. They report train loads going in to Newport and a crowd of Indians there to spend the Fourth. The most of them spend the time getting drunk and fighting.

The Commercial Club held its regular semi-annual election Tuesday evening and re-elected all the old officers and directors. W. A. Tucker was elected vice president to fill vacancy in old board caused by the resignation and removal of G. W. Paulsen.

W. M. Fishback was in from Monmouth Heights Wednesday and paid this office a friendly call. He reports a lot of hay down in that section, but thinks that little damage was done by the rain. He is assisting in the construction of Black Brothers big barn.

Down in Portland Wednesday a man found a snake with fangs on one end and a stinger on the other. Wonder if the new mayor is responsible for this? That particular brand of tarantula juice hasn't made its appearance here yet, but from the actions of some wellknown parties one need not be surprised at them finding even worse things.

Mrs. J. Dornsife was a business visitor from Independence Tuesday.

A. B. Westfall and wife were visiting his brother at Whiteson over Sunday.

Dr. Parrish and daughter, Winnifred, were Salem visitors Wednesday.

Frank Kurre has gone to Slab-creek to spend the summer with his brother Claud Kurre.

Little Hope McDonald won a dollar in the little girls' foot race at the Bosley picnic Saturday.

Rev. Hornschuch was here over Sunday holding quarterly meetings at the Evangelical church.

Mrs. John W. Walker and daughters were in from the farm Wednesday visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Parrish.

Mrs. Laura E. Miller, of Newberg, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hall, is visiting her parents here this week.

Bruce Rogers won the prize at the Bosley celebration by climbing the greased pole and putting his chin on the top of it.

The attendance at the Summer School so far is much better than last year. It is thought the maximum will be more than 200.

Miss Alice Grant, of Dallas, is here attending summer school and is making her home with her grandmother, Mrs. A. S. Dougherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Barnell were up from Portland for an over Sunday visit with Mrs. Barnell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Strong.

T. H. Halleck and son Hugh, have returned to their home at Newport after an extended visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Halleck.

We are adding a number of new subscribers to our list this week. We are clubbing with the Pacific Monthly for $1.65, or the School and Home magazine for $1.25.

Miss Addie Naylor, a teacher in the Thompson school in Portland, and Mrs. Pearl Davis, who is also teaching in the same school, are visiting this week with relatives and friends in this city.

Many from here attended the celebration at Dallas and report a very pleasant time. The W. C. T. U. float which Monmouth helped to furnish was beautiful; being all in white, emblematic of purity.

John Taylor was in the city from his farm on the Luckiamute above Lewisville. He is one of the pioneers of this section, having been born near where he now lives, his father settling there in 1853.

The Herald office will have its new one horse electric motor installed and working by the next issue of the paper. We will then be able to run both job presses at once, something we have needed for some time.

At the last meeting of the city council it was agreed to keep the chemical engine and so be prepared for fire to a certain extent at least. The next move should be to get a good gravity water system and then we would be one of the best protected towns of its size in the state.

We want 250 new subscribers before September 1. If we get them by that time we will install a cylinder press and enlarge the Herald to an eight page six column paper, adding several new features to it. Taking into consideration the fact that this paper carries no patent medicine ads and runs no patent inside; fights the saloons and stands for the rights of the people as against the corporate interests, it will be by far the best family paper published in this county.

T. A. Riggs has installed a McCaskey One-writing system of keeping accounts which is one of the best that has yet come into general use. By this system it is possible to keep one's account up to date in every way. The full amount of your indebtedness appears on each charge slip given you, thus avoiding any misunderstanding as you can verify each item, and if anything is wrong have it corrected at once while the transaction is yet fresh in mind. Mr. Riggs is one of the most progressive grocers in the west.

Officers Installed.

After installation ice cream, cake and lemonade were served by a committee appointed for that purpose and a good social time was had by all present.
