

Get the Habit

Get the habit of buying the best Farming Machinery when you buy. It costs no more, as a rule, than inferior goods, lasts longer and does better work.

DEERING machinery has few equals and no superiors. Our large sales testify that it is giving satisfaction. A full line of repairs on hand.

Miss May Jarvis attended the wedding of Miss Gertrude Sias and Mr. Charles Buhman, which occurred at the residence of Rev. C. A. Sias, a brother of the bride, in Dallas, Wednesday.

Morris Wheelock brought in some alfalfa that he has grown from seed sown May first, that is fourteen inches high. This gives evidence of being a fine alfalfa country if the right location is secured. Even in the best irrigated sections no greater growth can be shown than this of Mr. Wheelocks.

The Herald man has had his sidewalk repaired. If we knew where Ex-Marshall Paulson is making his headquarters we would inform him of the fact. There are other sidewalks in town that are in as bad or worse condition than ours was and where there are hundreds passing over every day and it doesn't look like there would be anything doing for some time yet.

H. Hirschberg was over from Independence Wednesday evening in his Buick car. He is getting to be the champion walker of this part of the world. He started from Spaulding's camp on the Luckiamute Saturday morning, walked across the coast range and down by Cape Foulweather to Newport by Sunday evening. We will wager there is not another railroad president in the United States can equal it.
