This week there is great activity along manufacturers row in South Monmouth, with the cannery and evaporator running, the flouring mill installing machinery and the creamery making butter, ice cream and ice of the finest quality. There's nothing the matter with Monmouth. Get a few more manufacturing plants and a few more families here and the things will boom.

Big loads of apples and pears are coming in to the cannery almost every day now and a considerable quantity of over-ripe and cull pears will be put through the evaporator. It seems that a vinegar factory would be a good adjunct to the cannery and thus get good values from the parings that are now thrown away. There is considerable vinegar used in Monmouth that could as well be manufactured here as at Port-

By order of the president of the W. C. T. U. the regular meeting will be held Friday, Sep. 24, in the Evangelical church. All members are requested to be present.

Mr. C. H. Ebbe looked in on us, Wednesday morning, having brought a bunch of beautiful flowers with which to brighten the editor's sanctum. There were ten different varieties of bright hued dahlias, migled with a liberal sprinkling of asparagus, to afford relief, altogether making a very handsome bouquet. Mr. Ebbe is quite a fancier of flowers, and butifies his home with many varieties.

Darrel Stump will leave in a few days for Prineville, where he will visit with his friend Joe Howard, Jr., and enjoy the exhilarating atmosphere of the inland country.

Amelia and Bessie Ross of Jefferson City, Tenn., arrived here the first of the week for a visit with their cousins, Allen and Agnes Clark. They are well pleased with the west and especially with Monmouth.

Mrs. Hamilton Mulkey, of Eastern Oregon, came last Friday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. E. F. Lucas and to call on old friends. She is a daughter of the late John E. Murphy, one of the founders of Christian College which was later merged into the Normal school and who died in April 1874.

Simon Merza, of Ur, Chaldea, was in town Thursday in behalf of the Christians of his country, who have suffered so much persecution at the hands of the Turks. The persecution left thousands without shelter and hundreds of orphans. Straw is the only covering many have for the night and bread once a day with wild fruit twice a day is the only food. Probably in the near future an offering will be taken to aid them.
