

We SELL the Famous Now is the time to buy
KENTUCKY DRILL your Plows and Farm Machinery. Give us a call if needing anything in this line.

Come In and Examine these Machines

A Fine Line of STOVES, and anything you may need from the Hardware Store.

J. E. Winegar & Co.,

Monmouth, Oregon.

Independence.

L. Daymon has returned from Portland.
Peter Kurre visited Portland this week.
Charley Irvine has moved to his ranch near Toledo.
Miles Porterfield sold his hops last week for 23cts per pound.
Mrs. Dr. Allin is visiting her parents in Portland this week.
Mr. Fichard was a passenger to Portland Wednesday morning.
Mr. Bridges sold his hops last Saturday, for 22cts per pound.
Jimmie Johnson, of McMinnville, spent Thanksgiving with friends here.
Mrs. Geo. Whiteaker and Mrs. Eldredge were Portland visitors last week.
Miss Hazel Bohannon, who is teaching school at Condon, came home for Thanksgiving.
George Reuff leaves today for Los Angeles, Calif., where he will remain for two months.
Miss Ruby Earhart was among the O. A. C. students, who came home to spend Thanksgiving.
Mrs. Chappell left last week for a visit of several days with Portland and Newburg friends.
Miss Epley, of Sidney, visited with her sister, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Hewitt, this week.
Miss Bertha Bohannon came down from Corvallis to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.
Thirty-five head of Mr. Collins' goats were lost in the high water, on his place in Marion county.
Grace and Ed. Wallace, O. A. C. students, spent Thanksgiving with their mother, Mrs. M. W. Wallace.
The recent high water did considerable damage to the hop yards along the river bottoms. A number of growers report their trellis in bad shape.

Mrs. Kutch returned last week from a two weeks visit with friends and relatives in Ashland and Medford.
Rev. J. R. N. Bell, of Corvallis, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Butler this week. Rev. Bell was enroute to Newburg where he went to deliver an address.
C. N. Thorp and family have returned to Independence after a year's residence in Portland. They are satisfied to be back to this city again.
John Groves' hop yard, just across the river from Independence, suffered considerable loss during the high water, about 18 acres of trellis' were washed away.
530 bales of hops at the Rose hop house, valued at $20,000, was damaged by the water. The bales are being hauled to the hop houses north of town and re-dried.
The foot ball game between Portland and Independence on last Thursday, resulted in a score of 25 to 5 in favor of Independence. Dole Pomery was injured in the back, and Nevel Eldredge sprained his ankle and is now going on crutches.

King's Valley
Miss Minnie Price, of O. A. C., is home for a few days.
E. P. Weir was in the Valley Monday, from Salem on business.
T. J. Allen was in Portland last week to purchase Christmas goods.
Reason Kibbie was out from camp over Sunday visiting friends.
The town election for the selection of officers to take the places of those retiring takes place on the 3rd Monday of Dec.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Logan visited at the Rodgers home Sunday afternoon.
Hutch Bevens killed a coyote last weeks. May such good work continue.
John McCallum came over from Falls City to visit his family Thanksgiving and returned Sunday.
Mrs. Alice Ames and little son, Giles, was over from Wendling over Sunday with her Aunt, Tillie Rodgers.
The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wood, of Philomath, was buried in the Valley cemetery Thursday, Nov. 25th.
E. B. Williamson our school teacher spent Thanksgiving with his uncle, Mr. Dwyre, at Falls City, and says its quite a nice place.
Dr. Staats was up from Airlie last week to attend the infant at the home of Mr. Siddle which was quite sick, but is much improved at present.
Thomas and J. S. Forsyth of Luckiamute were in town this week.
A. D. Elder our jovial butcher, returned Wednesday from a visit to Shedd's.
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Robertson of Montgomery were Monmouth visitors Wednesday.
E. P. Weir, W. H. Parker and A. Jackson of Salem registered at the Hotel Monmouth last Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tanner of Portland spent Thanksgiving with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robertson of South Monmouth.
E. W. Strong disposed of $600

Monmouth Livery and Feed Barn
Graham & Son, Proprietors.
General Transfer and Delivery Business.
Horses Boarded by the Day, Week or month.

W. A. TUCKER
Real Estate

- | | |
|----------------|----------------|
| Fruit | Grain |
| Poultry | Pasture |
| Dairy | Timber |
| Farms | Lands |

Monmouth, Oregon

worth of logs to Spaulding & Co. Mr. Strong caught Spaulding & Co's logs in his boom on Luckiamute and then sold what he had in the boom.
Ora Rhodes of Salem was in town this week. Mr. Rhodes is superintending the setting out of 160 acres in fruit, near McCoy, 60 acres of which is already planted.
Mr. J. L. Fishback, an aged resident of Monmouth Heights, died, Wednesday, about noon. The funeral services took place at 10, a. m., this morning at the family residence.
The following transfers are recorded as being made by the W. A. Tucker Real Estate Co., for the month of November; G. A. Peterson, stock of goods to P. H. Johnson; P. E. Chase, stock of confectionery to P. H. Johnson; J. W. White to Peter Springer, 205 acres farm land; Peter Springer to J. W. White, 15 acre tract improved; Fred Smith, 35 acre fruit farm, to J. H. Ballard.
Mr. Wheeler, son-in-law of Zook, the painter, has rented a house and will move to town. Mr. Wheeler is an upholster by trade.
D. M. Hampton returned home yesterday from Enterprise, Oregon. He left Mrs. Hampton with their daughter, Mrs. Donnelly, who is some what improved but not entirely well yet.
A. B. Westfall has been in the sign-painting business this week and the result is that G. A. Peterson and P. E. Chase will each have a new sign over their places of business. Mr. Westfall is a clever hand with a paint brush.
Dr. Laura C. Price accompanied Miss Blanche Stitt to Portland last Saturday where Miss Stitt under went a surgical operation on Monday which proved successful and the patient is getting along very well. Dr. Price is expected to return home to-day.