T. J. Pettit of Corvallis was in town this week looking after his interests here. Mr. Pettit is a former Monmouth citizen.

Frank Westfall of Amity, Oregon, arrived here last week on a visit to his father and brother, J. M. and A. B. Westfall, respectively.

Feathery flakes of snow came fluttering down last Friday morning, just enough to let us know that it could snow in this section, but they did not linger.

Edward Smith, county clerk of Polk county, accompanied by his wife, came over from the county seat and spent Thanksgiving day with his father, R. M. Smith.

G. T. McKinney has accepted a position in T. A. Riggs store where he will help wait upon the patrons. Mr. McKinney appears to be at home in that employment.

D. M. Hampton and wife received a dispatch that their daughter who lives at Enterprise, Oregon, was critically ill, and they left last Friday for that place.

Miss Alice Grant of Dallas visited her grandmother, Mrs. A. S. Doughty, here Saturday returning home Sunday. Miss Grant is employed as a teacher in the Ferrydale school.

Rev. L. C. Hoover has gone to Tigardville, a suburb of Portland to help in a revival service. During his absence from the pulpit, next Sunday, Rev. A. Winter, president of the Dallas college will preach in the Evangelical church, morning and evening.

Thanksgiving passed off quite pleasant in this section with its usual cheer. The Herald force would have enjoyed it much better had not the electrical force played truant, causing a big kick in the office in order to get the paper off the press by foot power.

N. W. Heffley gave us a business call Monday morning and left some of the lubricator that circulates the Herald and keeps it healthy. Mr. Heffley is at work preparing to set out a ten-acre prune orchard. He realizes that Oregon is rapidly swinging into line as a fruit supply to other places, as well as her own cities and he is getting ready to profit by helping produce the supply.

Our townsman J. M. Murdock, who is visiting in the East wrote back from Nebraska that there are many persons looking toward Oregon, and he thinks that when the low rates open up again in the spring there will be quite a movement this way, and he says that he will do all he can to see that Polk county gets its share of the influx. Mr. Murdock went to enjoy a long visit, intending to stay till Spring, but he was not so sure of his long stay and very probably will return while the New Year is quite young. He has gone on to New York since he wrote. He gets no pleasure out of the cold weather that prevails in that country.

Items from Falls City

Ira Love spent Friday in Salem, attending to business.
