W. A. Tucker and J. H. Moran each had business which called them to Independence Saturday.

On Saturday night the basket ball game drew the largest crowd of the season so far, the receipts being $33.

F. P. Byers of Independence was a visitor in Monmouth last Tuesday and gave the Herald a pleasant call.

J. B. Stump and Charlie Leonard were called to Portland Monday, to sit on the U. S. Grand-jury. Mr. Stump was excused from duty.

Mrs. C. V. Clodfelter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Grif-fa, and her bright little son, returned to their home at Jefferson, last Saturday.

Fire visited the Lewis and Clark expositions grounds early Monday morning and destroyed the Coos County building and damaged the Oregon State building badly.

George F. Shew, the brick and tile manufacturer, was doing business in town Monday. Mr. Shew has been having a good trade lately, as the frozen conditions of the ground proved a good time to deliver tiling.

Christmas on the Yachats River

A very enjoyable night was spent at the Yachats School-house Dec. 23, where a crowd of people, numbering about sixty, gathered to participate in the festivities of Christmas.

The entertainment was opened with a few remarks and prayer by Mr. Silas Howell.

The programme which was conducted by Mary Murphy the teacher was pronounced a decided success by all. It was said by a number of the old residents that this was the best entertainment ever given here.

The recitations that were given were very good and showed good training especially the ones given by the little tots. The little play called "Obstinacy" that was given last but not least displayed good talent for that line of work which we hope to make future use of.

A sumptuous repast was served at one o'clock in which all especially the children were eager to participate. The cakes, pies and roast chicken of which we had an abundance could not be excelled, saying nothing of the good coffee, sandwiches and pickles.

The latter part of the night was spent in playing games and eating candy, nuts and apples. After singing a few old familiar songs closing with "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," we took our departure.

Several head of range stock died during the present cold snap in Crook county, solely because of their inability to get water on the range. Grass is plentiful and shows above the snow, but water was not to be had, every thing being frozen solid, and snow is not a good drink for animals. - Prineville Review.
