Examination of Census Takers

In reply to an inquiry, Supervisor R. J. Hendricks announces that tests of candidates for the position of census enumerator will be held on Saturday, February 5.

These tests will be taken by the Supervisor at the Salem post-office, in the rooms on the second floor. They will be taken at Oregon City, Dallas, Albany and the various postoffices throughout the First congressional district, under the direction of the various postmasters, acting for the supervisor. The candidates will take the tests at the post-offices that are the most convenient for them.

Candidates will be furnished with the full list of postoffices at which tests will be taken, and cards of admission will be mailed—cards admitting them to take the tests. Every candidate will also receive by mail a sample of the population and of the agricultural schedules, together with a circular concerning the tests. Every candidate who files his or her application, in writing, with the supervisor by the last day of this month, will be entitled to take the test. There will probably be 1700 candidates in this district. There are 303 places to fill.—Observer.
