

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Tonight the Dramatic Club entertains in the Normal Chapel.

Abstracts promptly furnished at reasonable rates, by L. D. Brown, Dallal, Oregon.

Allen Clark, Lindsay & Company's clerk, has been laid off duty this week, having contracted a severe cold.

Mrs. Addie Shore, one of the members of the Golden Rule Bible Class, is suffering from a siege of lagrippe.

S. H. Peterson, who has been ailing for some time, is still on the sick list remaining in about the same state of health.

G. A. Peterson purchased a fine driving horse a few days ago for family use. The animal is young and Mr. Peterson is highly pleased with his purchase.

The long severe winter has sent the price of hay soaring in North Eastern Oregon. Wheat hay commands 18 dollars and timothy hay 20 dollars a ton in Umatilla county.

Rev. W. W. Davis has secured a house and lot in Monmouth and some 30 acres of land near Corvallis from E. W. Strong. He traded property at Alsea for his new possessions. Mr. Davis will move his family here in a couple of weeks.

The Newberg basket ball team which was scheduled to play the High School team here last Saturday evening arrived on time and defeated the home boys in a score of 16 to 15. The Monmouth boys have played loser the last two games. Most of the score made by the Newberg boys was the result of fouls.

W. H. Whiteaker was in town Monday looking after interests connected with the oil well which is being sunk on his father's place some three miles Northwest of town. From Mr. Whiteaker we learned that a depth of 664 feet had been attained and that excellent prospects had appeared, and he seemed to be very sanguine as to what the future would bring to the surface.

We notice considerable paper is being thrown upon the streets these days and a word in regard to it might not be out of place here. Often we do things thoughtlessly that may result seriously to some one else—perhaps to self. The other day we observed the wind whisk a large piece of paper toward a team standing in the street; the horses did not like it at all, and had they been a little more spirited they would have been on the run at once. The habit of throwing paper on the street may cause some one injury.

M. M. Jones hailed us the other day to give us an item of the industry of his hens since the New Year started in. Mr. Jones has about 80 pullets and during the first two weeks in this month he marketed $15.00 worth of eggs. Rev. Hoover has also been gainer by a good supply of eggs since the New Year started, but there are other poultry owners who have not so been blessed, which reminds us that perhaps the New Year resolution or the feed proposition has entered into the production of hen fruit. Some may have resolved to produce while others resolved not to do so, but we opine that the quantity and quality of the feed has a very marked effect upon the production of a hennerly.

Now you have read the local news look at the Furniture Store ad in another column.

Harry Lucas was laid off work this week being a sufferer from lagrippe.

Mrs. B. F. Bowersox was one of the sufferers from cold but has recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Aiken's home was blessed by the arrival of a son Tuesday morning. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Quite a good many citizens of Monmouth have been attending the revival services at Independence. On Wednesday night there were 18 conversions making a total of 180 up to that time. On last night the gasoline motor made a couple of trips from Monmouth, carrying persons to attend the meeting.

T. J. Craig, A. L. Finley, C. E. Clodfelter, Mrs. E. E. Little, of Portland, and R. C. Atwood and wife and Miss McPherson, of Wasco, were in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. E. S. Catron, Tuesday. Rev. Poling of The Dalles who held the funeral service before leaving the home, came also. Mrs. Catron leaves a husband and two small daughters to mourn their bereavement.

Eight Cows Bring Nice Income

That there is money to be made in the dairy business has long since been proven, but we believe the coming of the creamery and its attendant separator, has been an especial boon, to the small dairies. The following item is taken from the statement G. G. Hewitt received from the Monmouth Creamery Company for cream sent to the company during the month of December 1909, and shows a very comfortable income from a few cows:

Number of cows milked, 8; pounds of cream produced, 749; amount of butter fat, 272.16 pounds; size of check, $107.65.

Mr. Hewitt fed his cows eight pounds of rolled vetch seed screenings and 20 pounds of kale a day, and beside this they had all the vetch hay they would eat.

For the 31 days of December this makes an average of about one and one-third pounds of butter fat a day per cow, and as the price was 40 cents a pound during nearly all the month, the average amount received per cow was $13.45. This makes a very nice income from a small dairy.

Monmouth Heights.
