It is estimated that the heavy frosts have damaged this year's orange crop, in California, to the extent of a million dollars.

The sheriff's report shows that Polk county had only $961.28 of delinquent taxes on the 8th of this month which certainly is a good showing.

Mrs. I. H. Fream, accompanied by her daughter, Ruby, has gone to Aberdeen, Wash., to visit with her daughter, Mrs. John Robinson of that place.

William Riddell, junior, has been doing some plowing lately.
He has some two hundred acres of land, which he wishes to get ready for seeding.

The operation of casing off the water at the oilwell was in progress last week. The well is over 660 feet deep now and the oil prospect is said to be splendid.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ebbert and son, Darrel, of Mistletoe precinct, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting Mr. Ebberts' parents and relatives in Monmouth.

A. B. Danna of Dallas was in town Monday soliciting subscriptions for the Pacific Monthly and gave the Herald office a call. He went from here to Airlie to canvass that section.

There will be Sunday School at the Baptist Church next Sunday at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11 a. m., and preaching in the evening at 7. The public is cordially invited to attend.

D. M. Hampton informed us that he saw W. T. Fogel while he was in Portland last week.
Mrs. Fogle is some better and Mr. Fogle still has to keep his eye bandaged. He is working in a print shop at Portland.

We visited the Monmouth creamery last Monday and found Manager Murdock preparing a place to store ice. He intends beginning the manufacture of ice this week and getting a supply ready for the busy season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Phillips of Walla Walla, Wash., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Phillips parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ebbert of Monmouth. They will leave shortly for a trip up the Willamette Valley, going as far as Eugene, the old home of Mrs.
Phillips childhood days to renew old acquaintances and visit her many friends.

Flour at Riggs' Grocery Store.

W. M. Grover of Portland registered at Hotel Hampton this week.

Luther Ground returned home the latter part of last week from a week's visit in Portland.

Messers O. B. Kirkpatrick, A. F. Rapp, and H. H. Backshear of Portland were in Monmouth Wednesday in the interest of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

Lafe Townsend of Salem was in town this week looking after a location. Mr. Townsend sold his place some six miles out of Salem a short time ago for $105 an acre and as there was 500 acres in his farm he received quite a sum of money for it.

Chas. Layne, a logger 24 years old drowned last week in Coyote Greek, west of Eugene, while helping with a log drive. The log upon which he was riding turned and it appears that he stuck his head upon some hard substance in falling which rendered him incapable of helping himself.

Mrs. Greene entertained the Social Hour and Reading Club at the home of Mr. H. Best on Wednesday afternoon, as a surprise to her mother, Mrs. Overall. Grandma has been a member of the Club ever since its organization, five years ago, owing to illness she has been unable to attend this winter. The hours from 2:30 to 4 p. m. were most delightfully spent. Dainty refreshments were served.

High School Entertainment.

Last Friday evening the High School Dramatic Club gave their entertainment which they have had in course of rehearsal for the past several weeks, to a large an appreciative audience. Despite the unfavorable weather the crowd came out, and all seemed to express by their good cheer that they were glad they had come out to hear and see the young people.

The first on the program was the presentation of the Farce,
"The New Reporter," in one act.
The parts were all well sustained by Misses Agnes Clark and Fae Strickler; Messrs. Russell Quisenberry, Ray Chute, Ervin
Springer, Harold Herren, Ranie Burkhead and Dwight Quisen-berry.

"A Rogue's Luck," Farce-Comedy, in three acts, was next on the roll of entertainment and presented by the Misses Mignon Burt, Olea Shore and Loraine Johnson; Messrs. Ervin Springer, Howard Morlan, Ray Chute, Lloyd Springer and Ranie Burkhead.

Both plays were presented in an interesting and laughable way. All those taking part showed that careful attention had been paid to their training; all looked well, all did well. Good music was furnished throughout the evening's entertainment by the orchestra.

Street comment has been very favorable. The receipts for admission amounted to $80.

Hymenial Bonds

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clapp at Pleasant Valley five miles west of Monmouth, Thursday Jan. 20 at 12 o'clock when their daughter Clara became the wife of Mr.
Henry C. Williams, Rev. L. C.
Hoover of Monmouth officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams left immediately for the coast where they will spend a few days, after which they will return to Mr.
Williams home in Idaho where they will make their future home.
