Surprised the Minister

At the close of the morning service last Sunday Rev. L. C. Hoover was very agreeably surprised on being presented with the Popular Biblical Encyclopedia consisting of three large volumes and costing some $18.50.

The presentation was made by Mrs. Mumma, being a present from friends and members of his congregation.

Rev. Hoover was taken completely by surprise although it was very agreeable as the gift was one which he much desired and appreciates.

Bad Runaway

Har ley Mulkey had a runaway Wednesday by which he lost a horse valued at about $150 and sustained damage to his wagon and harness also. He left his team standing near the post office and went into the book store for a moment, leaving the lines around the brake bar. The team started off on a walk at first but soon were in a wild run going down Main street. At Muscott's store they drew in toward the sidewalk, one taking each side of a telephone pole. The off horse was thrown against the concrete side-walk breaking a leg so badly the animal had to be shot. The other went through its harness and was caught a block farther down the street. It was not injured. One wheel of the wagon was smashed and some other damage sustained to it beside breakage to harness.
