Falls City has amended its charter so as to have the expending of their road tax upon the streets of their town. They have also voted bonds for a water system and expect to have that installed in three or four months.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Chute, of Bethel, were the guests of their cousin, A. L. Chute, and family, of this place last Sunday. They had been in attendance at the institute at Independence and took this occasion to visit their relatives.

W. A. Tucker has enlarged his field of operations by uniting forces with Mr. Ferguson of Independence. They have a real estate office in each place, and the joining of forces gives them enlarged opportunities to suit applicants for locations.

A. N. Poole, who has the supervision for the remodeling of the M. E. church building in Independence, went to work Wednesday upon the structure, the first work being the removal of the old building preparatory to constructing the addition.

O. C. Zook has been at work the last few days on a septic vault which the Monmouth Creamery Company is having installed to take care of the waste from the creamery plant. The vault is to be six feet wide and 16 feet in length and will be made of concrete.

Cottage Grove has a commercial club whose numerical strength has been increased from forty to nearly two hundred in the last few weeks. They are united and active for the welfare of their town and to promote Nesmith county. Energy and activity like that deserves to succeed. Victory belongs to the active and vigilant workers.

We passed along by the meat market Wednesday forenoon and—well, there were five dressed swine hanging on the hooks. We were somewhat astonished but our friend Elder assured us that it was all right and we guess it was, for the photographer soon put in an appearance and proceeded to make a record of the interior of the shop. There was also a good supply of beef on hand.
