WINEGAR & LORENCE

Monmouth,

Oregon

Local and Personal.

L. D. Brown, Attorney-at-law, Notary Public, Abstractor, Dallas, Oregon.

Graham & Son have repaired their large scales and are now ready to serve the public when in need in that line.

T. A. Riggs and wife left Monmouth for Portland last week, where Mr. Riggs has opened up a real estate office. Monmouth loses a live business man in the departure of Mr. Riggs, but her citizens wish him success in his new field.

Falls City Items.

W. E. Gilbert was a Dallas visitor Wednesday.

Mr. D. Shepard and wife were visitors in Falls City this week.

Mrs. John Hyde, of Toledo, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. G. White.

Mrs. A. E. Peas, of San Francisco, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Allie Courter.

A. W. Planhington and wife, of Bridgeport, were shopping in Falls City Saturday.

Mrs. Sarah Davis, of Monmouth, visited her sister, Mrs. E. A. LaDow, this week.

Mrs. Julia Courter drove over from McMinnville Tuesday to visit her son, H. C. Courter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Tetherow started the 24th for Eastern Washington, for a three-month's visit with relatives and friends.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church gave a free social at the Tollar hall Thursday evening, which was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Cobb, of this city, has sold his beautiful home and five acres of land to Mr. Shepard, a nephew of D. Shepard, of this place. Mr. Cobb and his estimable family leave the first of June for Orland, California, where they will hereafter reside. The best wishes of all their Falls City friends go with them to their new home.

Falls City can now boast of a fine substantial band stand at the city park. The lumber used was donated by W. T. Grier, and the work was done gratis by the young men of the town.

A jolly crowd of K. of P.'s and their better halves met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Saturday evening to celebrate the 15th anniversary of their marriage. A pleasant evening was spent in viewing Halley's comet and in pleasant conversation, after which Mrs. Walker served refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Walker were the recipients of many nice gifts, from not only their friends here but from Newberg and other places. The K. of P. and the Pythian Sisters presented them with a beautiful china set of 40 pieces. After good-nights were said all wended their way to their respective homes.

A Sensational Prophet.

One of the most sensational of prophets was a Kosa negro named Umhlakasa, who did his prophesying in British Kaffraria, Africa, in 1856-7. His piece had met some mysterious strangers near a stream, and Umhlakasa, having gone to see them, reported that they were the spirits of his dead brother and others. They communicated a prophecy which rapidly grew. On an appointed day in 1857 two blood red suns were to rise, the sky would fall and crush the Fingos and the whites, herds of splendid cattle would issue from the ground, great fields of ripe millet would spring up, the Kosa deity would rise and live with their descendants, and trouble and sickness should be no more. Unhappily there was a condition—the Kosas must slaughter all their existing cattle. And so 200,000 cattle, the wealth and sustenance of the people, were killed, and probably 50,000 credulous natives starved themselves to death.

Game in Germany.

Germany is a country of Nimrods. There are, we learn, 600,000 sports men, which means one gun for every hundred people. Each year fall to the gun on an average 400,000 hares, 4,000,000 partridges, 2,000,000 thrushes, 500,000 rabbits, 100,000 deer, 145,000 woodcocks, 10,000 wild ducks, 25,000 pheasants, 22,500 deer, 15,000 quails, 13,500 bucks, 1,400 wild boars and 1,300 bustards. In weight this "bag" represents 25,000,000 kilograms, a kilogram being two and one-fifth pounds. The monetary value is about $6,500,000. The sum received for licenses to shoot is about $1,500,000.

Stung!

"I overheard my husband talking in his sleep last night," remarked Mrs. Trigger to her closest friend. "Oh, how interesting!" exclaimed the friend. "Did he mention some strange woman's name?" "No," snapped Mrs. Trigger; "he was dreaming about a baseball game." —Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Other Side.

Husband (mildly):—You should remember, my dear, that the most patient person that ever lived was a man. Wife (impatiently):—Oh, don't talk to me about the patience of that man Job! Just think of the patience poor Mrs. Job must have had to enable her to put up with such a man.

Naturally.

Scribbler—I am going to call my new play "The Wicked Flee." Wigwag—I suppose you'll—er—try it on the dog. —Philadelphia Record.
