Received Their Diplomas.

School closed here last Friday with appropriate graduating exercises Friday and Saturday evenings.

The eighth grade graduating exercises took place on Friday evening and were enjoyed by a good attendance. The address to the class was excellent and was delivered by Rev. L. C. Hoover, while all who took part in the exercises received liberal applause.

Those graduating were: Zaidie Putnam, Velma Hefley, Esther Harris, Stella Chute, Myrtle Withrow, Edna Parkes, Elva Lucas, Ethel Harris, Artie Burkhead, Marie Smith and Lula Peterson.

The High School exercises took place on Saturday evening and were of a high character and well received, but the weather having changed and the evening being rainy, the attendance was not so large as on the preceding night.

Rev. A. A. Winter, president of Dallas College, gave the address, and Rev. W. A. Wood presented the diploma with appropriate instruction.

The graduating class in this instance consisted of but one member, Miss Lydia Verbena Powell.

The exercises as a whole were splendid and the several pupils who took part showed by their efforts that care had been exercised on the part of instructors and pupils, and that Monmouth has a school that her citizens should take pride in and still reach out for higher attainment.

Last Friday gave us some very warm weather, but the afternoon brought forth quite a dust storm which was followed by rain. The amount of rain which fell was of great benefit to growing crops.

Mrs. C. E. Ferguson Dead.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ground were called to Portland last week to the bedside of their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Ferguson, who has since passed to the land of spirits. The following account is taken from Saturdays Oregonian:

Mrs. C. E. Ferguson, of Seattle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ground, of Monmouth, died yesterday of tuberculosis at Oak Grove Sanitarium, aged about 36 years.

At Mrs. Ferguson's bedside when the end came were her father and mother and Mrs. David Foulkes, of this city, a sister. Her other sisters—Mrs. Thomas E. Zieber, of Tacoma; Mrs. J. K. Johnson, of Independence, Ore., and Mrs. M. A. Ford, of Portland—also had been with the stricken woman for several days prior to her death.

As Miss Blanche Ground, Mrs. Ferguson was known to a host of friends in Polk county, where she resided prior to her marriage.

She will be buried today at Riverview, following funeral services which will be conducted by Dr. Hinson, of the First Baptist church, at Finley's Chapel, at 10:30 a. m. The bereaved husband arrived in Portland only yesterday, having been on the road in Eastern Washington at the time of Mrs. Ferguson's death.
