J. H. Johnson, a resident of Lebanon, visited Monmouth this week, returning home Tuesday. One of our citizens, conversing with him, learned that the sentiment of his section was very favorable to Monmouth upon the normal school question.

Members of the Evangelical Sunday School are planning for a picnic to occur on June 30, at a point on the Luckiamute some four miles out of town. Invitations have been extended the Christian and Baptist Sunday Schools to join in the festival.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Ecker gave Newport a visit last Saturday, returning home on Monday. They were accompanied to Newport by their son-in-law and daughter, Albert Davis and wife, of Corvallis. Mr. Ecker reports rather a disagreeable visit to the seashore as he chose a very windy time to make his visit.

The first number of volume one of the Aumville Advance, a new publication published at Aumsville, Oregon reached our table during the last week. It is a seven column folio paper and will be published in the interest of the home city. It has declared its independence on most things but is neutral on the prohibition question.

The largest commercial apple orchard on the Pacific Coast is the Lownsdale Orchard, near Yamhill, Oregon. It covers nearly 700 acres. There are 300 acres of trees 18 years old. This orchard was originated by Mr. M. O. Lownsdale, one of the most noted apple culture scientists in the Northwest. His laboratory discoveries and methods for treating trees are well known to orchardists everywhere. — Tillamook Record.

Zook the Painter, will hang your paper.

One of our items got separated last week so that it looked as if a cyclone had struck it. However D. M. Hampton and wife accompanied their son home to Pendleton just the same. They will return about the first of July.

Mrs. Mattie Mumma returned here last week from a visit to Eastern Oregon, and has been visiting friends at Dallas and other places during the week. She expects to leave next Monday for her home at Hermiston, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hewitt have been spending most of their time this week out on the ranch with their son, G. G. Hewitt. G. G. and wife became the happy possessors of a fine baby boy, June 9, and Mrs. Hewitt says she must look after her grandson.

Miss Anna Godbersen, who has been associated with the Monmouth High School during the last nine months, left Sunday for her home near The Dalles. She intended to stop in Portland for a few days on her way home. Miss Godbersen has made many friends during her stay here whose kind wishes she carries with her.

Emry-Wood Nuptials.

A very pretty wedding took place at the Maples, the home of Mrs. and Rev. W. A. Wood near Monmouh, Wednesday, June 15, when their daughter, Ruth, was united in marriage to Nelson Emery of Hood River.

At high noon the wedding party entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. W. A. Elkins, sister-in-law of the bride, in the sacred and impressive ceremony read by the bride's father they were united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony.

The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white Kobe Silk trimmed in satin ribbon and net.

The parlors were decorated in cut flowers and ferns.

After congratulations a four course dinner was served after which they were escorted to Independence where amid a shower of confetti and rose petals they took the train for Portland where they will visit for a few days. They will then be at home to their friends in Hood River whrer the bride formerly lived, and at which place the groom has a modern bungalow all ready for their occupancy.

They were the recipients of many valuable and usefui presents.

The bride is one of Polk County's successful teachers and a diligent worker in all church affairs.

Mr. Emry is manager of the Bridal Veil Lumber Co. of Hood River and is an exemplary young man.

Their many friends wish them complete success and abundant happiness on their journey through life.

238 FABRICS

MADE TO MEASURE

We have samples of 238 fabrics, all of the newest weaves. Many of these are silks. And we have a Portfolio picturing in actual colors the most charming spring styles created. There are 66 separate styles in suits, coats, dresses, skirts and capes.

These are all supplied to us by the American Ladies Tailoring Co., Chicago, whom we represent. They will make any garment to your individual measure—in any style and any cloth—just exactly the same as though you went in person to their tailoring shop.

We take all the measurements right in our store. A diagram is made giving all the facts which a man-tailor needs to adapt the garments to your individuality. Thus you get all the distinctiveness—all the effects—which the highest-priced tailor could give you.

We deliver the garments and guarantee satisfaction. Any garment not right is returned to the maker.

About Ready-Made Prices

Garments made in this way—to your individual measure—cost hardly more than ready-made garments. Small ladies' tailors, for no better service, charge at least twice as much.

Suits from $13.50 to $45.00. Dresses from $9.50 to $30.00—Coats $8.00 to $30.00—Capes $9.50 to $22.00—Skirts $5.00 up. These prices, remember, are for man-tailored garments, made to your measure.

Please come and see the styles and fabrics. Let us quote you on the garments you want. See how easily and cheaply you can now get the utmost in women's clothes.
