A Pioneer Gathering

A few days ago Mrs. Catron invited some of the Monmouth Pioneers to her home to spend the day with her, promising them an old fashioned dinner and she made good her promise for it was a luscious feast, such as Mrs. Catron knows how to prepare and was finished up with delicious ice cream.

Those present were Mesdames Stump, Lucas, Mulkey, Waller, Moore, Hall, Catron, Bedwell and Powell, Mrs. Doughty not being able to be present.

The day was spent in visiting, talking of future prospects and of old times when all worked together for the building up of the town, the church and the school.

New friendships are good but there always remains in the heart a warm place for old friendships formed in younger days.

Before adjourning Mrs. Lucas made a motion to give our hostess a vote of thanks for the pleasant entertainment which was responded to heartily.

Leg Broken

Little Jonnie Tate met with a severe accident last Sunday. He was at A. L. Chute's place at the time and the children were playing on a pile of lumber. From some cause the lumber toppled and fell over. The boys left leg was caught under it and both bones were broken below the knee. Dr. Matthis was called to reduce the fracture and the boy is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.
