REGULAR PORTLAND LETTER

Shows Give Oregon Apples Wide Publicity

SOCKEYED SALMON FOR COLUMBIA RIVER

Portland Business Men Attend Convention at Goldendale Washington

Portland, Ore., Oct. 25.—Oregon apples will be heard from at the different apple shows of the Northwest this fall. There is close rivalry between the apple states as to which shall take the chief prizes, and on this account the Oregon growers will be put upon their mettle.

Eugene has held its apple show and many specimens of perfect fruit were exhibited. Albany will have a fine apple show on November 9, 10 and 11. There is keen interest in the outcome and the many prizes will be sharply contested for. These shows will bring out the best apples in their localities and the prize fruit, together with that of other sections, will be sent to the Oregon Apple Show at Portland November 30, December 1 and 2. The best apples will, in turn, go to the National Apple Show at Spokane, the Vancouver show and the Chicago Apple Show.

Some Oregon districts will make individual displays at these fruit expositions. Hood River expects to send the two finest cars of apples ever leaving that district to the Spokane show. One car each of Spitzenbergs and Yellow Newton apples will be entered for the sweep stakes prize, and as the showing will be gathered from the large acreage given to growing these varieties, it will be of a very high quality.

Medford will make a strong showing at the Canadian National Apple show at Vancouver, B. C. A car of fancy Yellow Newton Pippins will be sent from one orchard. Medford people believe this will be as fine a carload of yellow apples as has ever been placed on exhibition. Medford will also send exhibits to Spokane and Chicago.

The Columbia River is being restocked with Sockeye Salmon.

The first shipment of 1,500,000 eggs from the Yes Bay, Alaska, hatchery is on the way here and will be hatched at Bonneville and the young fish liberated in the Columbia River when they reach a suitable size. A similar number of eggs will be brought from Alaska and hatched here each season for four years in succession and it is thought that at the end of that time this variety of salmon will be much more plentiful in the Columbia and its tributaries.

Portland business men and others from this state who attended the recent Southwestern Washington Development Association convention at Goldendale were struck by the spirit of good feeling and co-operation that prevailed. They found a great territory working together for common objects and succeeding in bringing about improved conditions in country and city life, in promoting industry and advancing the material interests of the people. Such a movement has a great future and all who attended the recent convention were benefitted. The next convention will be held in Vancouver in February.

Wenatchee is in line for opening the Columbia River from beyond the Canadian boundary to the sea. The Wenatchee Commercial Club has written the Portland commercial bodies that it will co-operate heartily in the movement and in fact practically the whole Columbia River Valley is united in the work.

A very sad accident occurred on Monmouth Heights last Saturday evening the 22nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Swearingen when their four year old daughter Mattie was burned to death. Her clothing caught fire from the stove where she had been playing and the parents were unable to extinguish the flames. She lived until three o'clock the next afternoon. Mattie was a sweet child with a loving disposition. The funeral services were conducted at their home Monday, October the 24th, at one o'clock by Elder W. A. Woods of Monmouth. Mr. and Mrs. Swearingen have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

There will be a box social, also a short program at the Elkins school house Friday night November 4th. Come and bring a box.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Winegar of McMinnville arrived here Tuesday for a few days visit with their son, J. E. Winegar and family.

Miss Elva Lucas and Neta Walker entertained their High School friends at the home of the former Thursday evening. A social time was spent after which dainty refreshments were served.

Supreme Court

Should be Taken out of Politics

Judge Will R. King, who is a candidate for re-election to the Supreme Court of Oregon, has made an enviable record on the supreme bench, where he has been for four years. He has been the author of the opinions on many noteworthy cases, some of them so complex that many weeks are required to examine the law and evidence and write the decision. His opinion in the case of Hough vs. Porter, for example, is accepted all over the West as authority on irrigation law and is used as a textbook in the Ann Arbor Law School. His decision in Straw vs. Harris, upheld and clarified the initiative and referendum system. In spite of the thoroughness of his work on each individual opinion, Judge King's total product has been as great as that of any supreme judge in many years.

The Non-Political Judiciary movement, which was started by the State Bar Association in July has as its object the removal of the supreme court beyond the reach of political influence. The Non-Political Judiciary movement endorsed Judge King, so a vote for him is a vote to take the supreme court out of politics and free it from all party obligations.

George H. Bennett, who is seeking Justice King's place on the bench, is the nominee of the Republican Assembly and before his selection declared he would not be a candidate unless he received the nomination of the Republican Assembly. He is accordingly on record as in favor of having politics govern the supreme court election.

There is no good reason why a good judge should be put off the bench on account of politics and another judge put in his place on account of politics. Justices Slater, Moore and McBride also have the endorsement of the Non-Political Judiciary movement.

House Burned Down

An alarm of fire last Friday night startled the citizens of Monmouth, who upon rushing to the scene found the residence of Mrs. S. E. Gardner to be a mass of flames.

Mrs. C. G. Griffa was one among the first to notice the light and her remark to her husband sent him to the window or door to see and finding that there was a fire he made for the scene, there being a dozen or so there ahead of him, but by that time the flames were bursting from the windows in the lower story, and nothing could be done to save the building, which was soon in ashes.

The buildidg was a neat, two story structure and had just been vacated a short time ago by A. D. Elder who had been living there for awhile. We do not know what the value of the structure was but understand it is covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lucas went to Corvallis Thursday on a business trip.

I. H. VAN WINKLE, of Salem for Circuit Judge will give equal justice to all and special favors to none. Qualifications based on experience and preparation.
