

Local and Personal

David Bullis moved into his new residence last Monday.

Lewis and Mary Murdock returned home Monday having resigned their positions as teachers. Lewis was teaching a school in Grass Valley and Miss Mary was in Klamath. The confinement of the school room did not agree with them.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Laurean and Philomathian Societies held their weekly meetings last Friday afternoon and the following program was rendered by the Philomathian Society after the conclusion of all matters of business by both societies: Song, Society; Reading, Minnie Wunder; Vocal Solo, Jean McInturff; Recitation, Harold Haley; Piano Solo, Leto Wolverton; Conundrums, Robert Thompson; Story, Agnes Clark; Piano Solo, Belle Rogers; Critic's Report, Miss Jackson; Song, Society.

The basket ball game between the first High School teams of Independence and Monmouth was played at Independence, on Dec. 10. A delegation of High School students attended the game with Miss McNeil as chaperone. The city dray did service as an automobile and all enjoyed the pleasure of the ride. The party left town at 7:15 and arrived in Independence accompanied by the usual school yells and the tooting of the ever present horns, at about 8 o'clock. The Monmouth boys played a good game and defeated their opponents by a score of 6 to 18.

The game was played in a friendly spirit and was free from all objectionable features.

A game with Corvallis High is scheduled for Saturday night to be played on the home floor. This game promises to be one of more than usual interest as Corvallis is reported to have a strong team while our boys will have the advantage of the local floor.

As this is to be the first game of the season with an outside team it is hoped a large crowd will be present to encourage the boys.

It is rumored that we shall soon have a new student in the High School, in the person of Lester Lindsay, who has just returned home from Portland Tuesday evening. Friends of the school will be glad to welcome him back.

The second of the series of lectures for the school year will come on Friday evening, December 16, at eight o'clock P. M. When Mrs. Dr. Laura Price will speak on "School Hygiene."

This being examination week the school notes are suffering somewhat for the reason that every one is cramming for exams.

Miss Cora Rossiter, teacher of the fifth and sixth grades, has been ill for the past two days with tonsillitis. She returned to her work Wednesday noon, showing the effect of her illness. Miss Bessie Graham acted as substitute during her absence. Mr. Charles McCarthy carried the work as teacher of first year algebra done by Miss Graham before.

From the Oregon Emerald. Principal Butler read an announcement saying that correspondence from the high schools of the state were desired, and that copies of the Emerald would be sent them for the reading table, volunteers were called for, and Misses Minnie Wunder and Esther Harris accepted the offer to assume the work. Correspondence was opened with the circulating manager, with the view of learning the details.

DEAR SIR:

I have just made arrangements with The Evening Telegram to act as their Bargain Day Agent for this community. I am enabled to quote you the exceedingly low rate of $3.50 for The Evening Telegram for the balance of this year and all of next.

The Telegram now has a very large circulation in this County; has full Associated Press reports and is the best market paper published in the state. Your subscription would include their large end-of-week paper which certainly is a hummer. It contains the following sections: Large News, Best Sporting, Colored Magazine and Colored four page Comic.

Fill out the coupon below and mail or send it to me at once. Every day you put it off means a loss of just that many papers, I will accept your personal check.

Thanking you in advance for your order.

I am, yours truly,

D. E. STITT.

Please find enclosed $3.50 for which send me The Evening Telegram for the balance of this year and all of 1911 as per your offer above.
