

Leisure Club Entertained

The Ladies Leisure Hour Club was very pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon, by Mesdames Howell, Butler and Wolverton, at the home of the latter.

The amusements of the afternoon were "Kitchen Conundrums." Mrs. Wm. Riddell won first prize and Mrs. Partia Mulkey carried off the booby prize.

After awarding the prizes all repaired to the dining room where dainty refreshments were served.

Those present were. Mesdames P. Mulkey, Remington, Lowe, Bowersox, Sickafoose, Doughty, Campbell, Stump, Howell, Butler, Coulter, Wolverton, Boothby, A. Mulkey, Misses Maggie and Alice Butler, Paradine Doughty, Leto Wolverton.

SCHOOL NOTES

On last Friday, Jan. 13, the Laurean Society entertained the Philomathian Society with a good program. Both societies are doing good work and their programs are both interesting and instructive.

The Senior class met Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of selecting a motto. The one chosen was: "Let knowledge be our anchor."

The High School basket ball team played the Dallas College second team, Jan. 14, resulting in a score of 21 to 6 in favor of the home team.

The Student Body of the M. H. S. wish to express their sympathy to the Dallas basket ball team on the loss of their gymnasium.

Principal Butler spent Thursday and Friday in Eugene where he went to attend the Third Annual Commonwealth Conference of Oregon. He reports a pleasant as well as a profitable time. He met a number of Monmouth's old friends who wished to be remembered to the H. S. Student Body.

The eighth grade examinations will be given Thursday and Friday of this week under the direction of Rev. Wood.

The debaters are at work. Of course the decision is always a question, but we hope for the success of our teams.

The High School Dramatic Club will give the first play of the season, Saturday evening, Jan. 21.

The Student Body extend their congratulations to Mr. J. H. Ackerman who has been elected President of the Normal School.

Much class spirit is being manifest in the H. S., especially last Tuesday morning. Upon entering the Library one saw on the front black board a picture of a large and dignified looking owl, with the following inscription at one side: "Who! Who! Seniors." On the one side board was the following notice: "Please do not disturb the Jolly Juniors. We are four, Prohibition," with a small goose underneath it. In explanation of this we must say that the Junior class is composed of four girls. On the other side was a large eagle with the name of Sophs. underneath it, while on the other side was the inscription: "Wee Dainty Freshies, the rising generation of 1914."

The Sophomores met last Monday and organized themselves into a class; R. P. Burkhead, Pres.; Mildred Force, Vice Pres.; Loette Shore, Sec.; Ruby Lorence, Treas.; C. A. McCarthy, Sergeant-at-arms; Neta Waller, Editor. The colors chosen were red and black. The sophomore class is the largest and jolliest in the school, numbering nineteen.

Prize Rams Sold

Fred A. Koser, of Rickreall, who won fame for himself and Polk County at the recent Portland sheep show, with his prize winning Cotswold ram, has sold the animal to H. G. Koyt, of Perrydale. Local livestock men are pleased that this county will remain the home of the "best long wool ram in the world."—Observer

Iniquities Her Delight.

She was walking around the corridors of the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts with her pince nez held at elbow length, evidently admiring some of the works. Although the gown that she wore was very expensive, it did not show good taste, and a single glance would convince one that she was of the class known as the "newly rich."

An acquaintance accosted her with the remark, "I didn't know that you were such an admirer of curios, Mrs. —."

"Oh, yes, indeed," she replied; "I just delight in iniquities."—Philadelphia Times.
