

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Basket Ball next Wednesday night.

A mixed quartett of local talent will sing at the Baptist church Sunday night.

J. H. Remington left for Idaho last Tuesday, to be gone a few days on business.

Watch the HERALD adds. They make good reading; at least it pays to watch them.

The Monmouth Real Estate Company has its office finished and is very cosily situated in its new home.

D. M. Hewitt has been sick for several days past but is convalescing now. He was suffering from a bilious attack.

The snow of last week disappeared in a hurry but the rain that caused its flight left lots of swollen streams in its wake.

At the home of W. H. Alexander, Wednesday. Mr. Joseph O. Anderson and Lillie E. Anderson were united in marriage by Rev. W. W. Davis.

O. P. Chase went to Salem yesterday to bring his little daughter home, who has been in the hospital at that city for the past couple of weeks.

For Sale—California Medicated Soap. Excellent for all skin diseases, also for shampooing the hair. Mrs. J. W. Richardson Sr. Monmouth St., Independence, Or.

H. T. Cartmell has sold his property in the East side of town and is leaving for Tudor California. He expects to get away to day.

Miss Agnes Haef leaves today for Portland where she will visit for a while after which she will go to her home at Jacksonville, Oregon.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Morlan & Son. They have started in business and ask a share of the public patronage of the citizens of Monmouth and vicinity.

To say that it rained on Tuesday and Wednesday is putting it light—it just poured down. Considerable damage is reported done to bridges, etc., by the high water in the creeks.

The stork paid a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Dahuff, on Jan. 16, and left a nine pound girl in his wake. Mr. and Mrs. Dahuff live in the neighborhood of Cooper Hollow.

A note received Wednesday from O. C. Zook, who is at the bedside of his daughter, Mrs. E. T. Plaster, at Dallas brought the intelligence that Mrs. Plaster is very low and that it is hardly possible that she can live the week out.

O. P. Chase's little daughter of whom mention was made some two weeks ago as having been taken to the hospital at Salem to be operated upon for appendicitis is recovering rapidly and will be able to return home in a couple of days more. The case was a very severe one but the little girl has come through remarkably well.

J. B. V. Butler gave Eugene a visit the latter part of last week, having been invited to make an address before the Commonwealth of Oregon, a department of the State University so called, the attendance on special occasions taking a large range. Mr. Butler's subject was, "The uplift of the Normal School to lower educational institutions, a subject with which his long connection with educational facilities has qualified him to discuss very forcefully.

J. H. ACKERMAN CHOSEN

Leading Educator is Head of State Normal

Salem, Or., Jan. 17.—At a meeting held by the Board of Normal School Regents here yesterday afternoon, J. H. Ackerman, Ex-Superintendent of public Instruction, a prominent educational worker in the state, was unanimously elected president of the State Normal School at Monmouth, which position pays yearly salary of $3600. Professor Ackerman will assume his duties immediately.

BASKET BALL NEWS

A surprise was surely dealt out to the basketball enthusiasts last Saturday night when a picked Team laid it over the Dallas College 2nd, at their pleasure, in the scale of 21 to 6. The lads played excellent ball considering the fact that the boys had put in most of their time coasting instead of practicing.

On next Wednesday evening, January 25, at 8:15 the Monmouth H. S. team will meet the fast Independence H. S. team in the Normal gymnasium. This game will be a "hummer" from start to finish. Don't forget the date. Admission, 15 and 25 cents.

I. O. O. F. Installation

On Jan., 16, 1911, Normal Lodge, No. 204 held Installation at which about 90 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were present.

The following officers were installed: Past N. G. Ed. Rogers; N. G., Paul Tacheron; V. G., J. S. Murdock; Sec., S. U. Gwin; Treas., E. R. Ostrom; R. R. N. G., W. R. Graham; S. S. N. G., Jacob Smith; R. S. V. G., H. K. Sickafoose; S. S. V. G., A. N. Poole; Warden, S. J. Murdock; Conductor, C. H. Newman, Chaplain, H. E. Guthrie; R. S. S., Allen Johnson; L. S. S., G. A. Muscott; Inside Guardian, Jesse Zook; Outside Guardian, Harry Lucas.

At the close of the Installation a delicious lunch was served which showed the Odd Fellows to be very efficient in the culinary department as well as being excellent entertainers. The repast being over games and dancing were in order until a late hour when all wended their way home well pleased with the evening's enjoyment.

Dallas Boy Injured

While working at the logging camp in the Sheridan vicinity Friday, R. O. Blodgett, a son of J. L. Blodgett, of the shooting gallery here, was struck by a log coming down the flume, and badly crushed along his entire left side. He was taken by train to a Portland hospital, exhibiting great fortitude on the arduous trip. His father went to his aid as soon as the news of the accident came here, and Mrs. Blodgett is with him at the hospital, where on account of loss of blood, small hopes are held out of his recovery.—Itemizer

OVER 65 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS & C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. HANDBOOK on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $5 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co., 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

Still Doing Business At The Same Old Stand

V. F. DANIEL
Monmouth, Oregon

Just Opened

A NEW STOCK OF GROCERIES

Where?

Second Door East of Post Office

Who?

MORLAN & SON

Call In and See Us

Monmouth,

Oregon

POULTRY SUPPLY STORE

THOS. BOULDEN, Proprietor

Highest Cash Price paid for all kinds of Poultry, Dressed Veal and Pork. Feed and all kinds of poultry supplies, for sale at lowest cash price

Monmouth,

Oregon