Churches To Unite

Dr. C. C. Poling, of this city, has returned home from his trip to Chicago, where he went to attend the convention of delegates from the United Evangelical Church, held there for the purpose of consolidating the two Evangelical bodies, the United Evangelicals and the Evangelical Association. The Dr. is highly pleased with the results of the meeting, and believes that by fall the hoped-for unification will be perfected. A committee was appointed to work out the details and it is thought that it will have no trouble in fulfilling its purpose. In the meantime the two organizations will affiliate temporarily, and their various missionary branches will act in conjunction.

While away Dr. Poling visited his son, Daniel A. Poling, formerly of Dallas, who is now located in Columbus, Ohio.—Polk County Observer.
