

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Zook, the paper hanger will do your painting.

Get your plants at Monmouth Greenhouse. Bell phone.

Eva Bellinger of Dallas visited friends in Monmouth last week.

O. H. Lehman, of Pleasant Valley, was doing business in town Tuesday.

Robert Steele who spent the winter at Los Angeles returned to Polk County last week.

Willard Craven and a party of friends from Independence were in town Monday auto riding.

D. M. Hampton has disposed of about three lots off the property he purchased of T. A. Riggs, to L. M. Butler.

C. Lorence was a Monmouth visitor Monday, and became the proprietor of a new buggy. His son, Ed, claims the honor of the sale.

Have your Eyes Fitted. Dr. Lowe the optician will be in Dallas March 29 and 30, and in Independence March 31. Remember the date.

Goat shearing has been on in this section for a few days. The prospects are that the price of Mohair will be some where around the 30 cent mark.

Mrs. C. Cornelius has the finest display of ladies' hats ever seen in Monmouth, and you will hardly find a nicer looking lot of goods anywhere.

Place your order now for Squabs, 25 cents each. Young pigeons, killed and dressed 2 for 25 cents; while they last. Order now of V. O. BOOTS.

Eggs for hatching—Phone 187. Full Blood Barred Plymouth Rock eggs for sale $1.50 for 15. Full Blood S. C. White Leghorn eggs for sale $1.50 for 15.

The Monmouth Bakery is likely to change proprietors again in the near future in which case Orval White who is now doing the baking will become the proprietor.

Mr. A. S. Markee was in town Monday shaking hands with friends. He returned to Forest Grove in the afternoon where he is attending school at the Pacific University.

C. H. Ebbe and his adopted son, George, went to Toledo Tuesday where they will visit Mr. Ebbe's son, John, and from which place they will visit the seashore before returning.

J. M. MacDonald treated the HERALD force to a mess of fine lettuce this week. He has a fine lot in his green house and is shipping to several of our sister cities besides supplying the home market.

Railroads estimate that the present colonist movement will add anywhere from 15,000 to 20,000 population to Oregon. This is only for the period from March 10 to April 10, when the low westbound rates apply.

B. F. Baker of this place and Mr. Hoffman of Independence started for Eastern Oregon Sunday to buy up wheat land. They expect to be gone about two weeks. Their destination was the county adjacent to Madras.

Capt. Wyatt Harris, an old friend of our townsman, D. M. Hampton, died at McMinnville, Monday, aged about 75 years. Mr. Harris is an old soldier having served in a Missouri regiment and did time in Andersonville prison. He came to Oregon in 1879. Mr. Hampton went to attend the funeral at McMinnville today.

Joe Tetherow was doing business in town Wednesday.

J. H. Ackerman and wife gave Salem a visit this week.

C. T. Allen of Airlie, was doing business in town yesterday.

There will be a Dramatic Entertainment at Airlie, March 25.

G. T. Boothby drove down to Oak Grove, yesterday in a buggy.

New life is being infused into the piano contest. Watch the changes.

Mrs. Cook, mother of H. L. Cook, was here last week looking for property.

Abstracts promptly furnished at reasonable rates, by L. D. Brown, Dallas, Oregon. tf

Mrs. Sarah Davis is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mattie LaDow, of Falls City, over Sunday.

R. W. Stow who has been stopping in this place for some time moved on to Corvallis yesterday.

Mrs. Kathryn Lenhart of Springfield arrived here yesterday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stitt.

Wilfred Kaiser and Robert Muscott of Dallas visited G. A. Muscott and family here a few days returning home Monday morning.

Mrs. Mabel Hoke and her sister, Ottoline, arrived here, Wednesday, from Seattle, Wash., on a visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Westfall.

J. A. Haines has purchased the George Kelly place this week, and E. C. Cole who has been living in the Kelly residence will move to the Dornsife place.

Frank Muscott and wife of Dallas were here Wednesday on a visit to Mr. Muscott's father G. A. Muscott. He is going to move from Dallas to Portland.

William Cochell, a Polk County farmer, aged 65 years, was examined as to his sanity by Dr. W. S. Carey before the County Judge Coad Monday, and was committed to the asylum.—Observer.

Mrs. Lou Olden was in town Wednesday on her way to Wells Station to attend the funeral of her father, R. D. Hodges, an old pioneer who died at that place at the advanced age of 85 years. Mrs. Olden found upon arriving here that she was too late for the funeral, so returned home.

On last Friday evening the sophomore class, held their regular monthly meeting at the beautiful country home of Miss Ruby Lorence. A jolly evening was spent in playing games. At a late hour a dainty lunch consisting of sandwiches, pickles, ice cream and cake was served after which the guests, twenty five in number, departed for home.

Miss Ova Smith Dead

Miss Ova Smith died very suddenly, Wednesday evening while sitting at the table.

Miss Smith has been sick for a long time but death was not expected. The funeral will take place some time today, and we expect an obituary for next week.

F. U. A. Meeting

F. U. A. Meeting next Tuesday night at 7:30 p. m. A good programme will be rendered. All members are requested to be present. Come and help make this a good lively Lodge session.

G. T. BOOTHBY, F. M.
A. N. POOLE, Sec.

Baled Hay For Sale

Enquire of P. O. Powell or J. F. Powell, Monmouth, Oregon.
Bell Phones.

We wish to extend to you a cordial invitation to visit the store at your earliest convenience and inspect the new

FABRICS FOR SPRING

Fancy Silks in Foulard's, Jacquards, Lapo Tussah, Shadow stripes, Shantung, Etc., Fancy Mohairs, Zephyrs, Voiles, and Summer wash goods.

V. F. DANIEL'S

Monmouth, - Oregon

See Them Come See Them Go

Goods coming every day. We handle Royal Club goods, they are second to none; also cheaper brands to suit anybody. Our tea and coffee is of the best; our spices and extract is as good as the best; we handle nothing but the best sugar; and other articles too numerous to mention. Call and see us

MORLAN & SON

Monmouth, - Oregon

Bell Phone, Main 24.

POULTRY SUPPLY STORE

THOS. BOULDEN, Proprietor

Highest Cash Price paid for all kinds of Poultry, Dressed Veal and Pork. Feed and all kinds of poultry supplies

FOR SALE AT LOWEST CASH PRICE

MONMOUTH,

OREGON