

Local and Personal

J. H. Haight of Albany was in Monmouth Wednesday.

Travel has been somewhat slack this week except that commercial men have been much in evidence.

Mrs. F. E. Lenhart, who has been visiting her parents, D. E. Stitt and wife for the past ten days, left to-day for her home at Springfield, Oregon.

William Beckley will build a fine large bungalow on the property formerly owned by Mrs. S. E. Gardner. Work will probably commence the coming week.

Mr. Agnes Daily who has been stopping at home with her parents, ye editor and wife for a month past left for San Francisco today and expects to reside in California.

In making mention of Mrs. Lou Olden, last week, a mistake occurred, it was her grandfather's funeral which she was desirous of attending but failed on account of trains not connecting.

Orvall and Earl White have purchased the Monmouth Bakery business from C. C. Mulkey. The boys are enterprising and should have the support of the community.

Mrs. J. P. Douglass of Huntington, West Va., came Saturday to visit her sister Mrs. Heffley. She was accompanied from McMinnville, by another sister, Mrs. Hendrick and little daughter, both returning Monday afternoon.

B. F. Baker and W. T. Hoffman, the latter of Independence, returned home, Wednesday, from their trip into Eastern Oregon. They found plenty of land to be had but conditions did not suit their purposes, hence, they did not invest.

The old gentleman Peterson who has been very sick for some time is improving and has offered his home for sale and expects to enter the Soldiers' Home in Cal. Mrs. Peterson will also go to California. They expect to start in about two weeks.

There was a pleasant gathering and a nice supper given at Rev. W. W. Davis' home, Tuesday evening in honor of the return home of Mrs. A. B. Morlan from her Eastern visit. The members of the Baptist church generally were there to welcome her home.

Business men of Independence have asked the Monmouth Real Estate Company to open up a branch of their business in their town and they are thinking of doing so if a suitable office can be obtained. If they do an agent from Salem who has had large experience in this branch of work will take charge of this branch office.

Pleased With Country.

Mrs. Angie Reynolds of Montana, a wealthy widow woman has been a guest in the home of Dr. McInturff for the past week. She was a kind of advance agent for a number of well to do people in her section who are thinking of Oregon as their future home. She was greatly pleased with Monmouth and its surrounding country. While the Monmouth Real Estate Company was driving her over the country she frequently exclaimed, "That is the finest country I ever saw." She purchased the ten acres of S. W. Jackson of Monmouth. Her daughter will at once move into the house and Mrs. Reynolds will take up her home there in June. She is an Osteopath and expects to start business and open an office here. Epilepsy and other nervous disorders yield readily to her treatment.

Mrs. Reynolds was greatly pleased with the fine Rhode Island Red chickens owned by Rev. Hoover and she purchased all of his flock except seven. She and H. F. McInturff went into partners with the chickens and expect to enlarge the plant to many hundreds of these splendid birds.
