A Serious Runaway

Mr. R. Reynolds who is out from Iowa, visiting his son, Mr. J. A. Reynolds, was in a rather serious run-a-way on Monday evening. Seemingly the old gentleman was renewing old associations by driving the mower. The horses became unmanagable in a bad place and the mower was tipped over. As a result Mr. Reynolds is confined to his bed with two broken ribs, several cuts about the face and head, as well as a badly bruised ankle. The team, after it had gotten away, ran into the buggy driven by Mrs. J. A. Reynolds, but no further damage was done as the team was soon caught. Dr. Hewit, who is attending the case, says that his patient is doing nicely and that he has hope of his speedy recovery.—Independence Enterprise.
