Zook, the paper hanger will do your painting.

J. H. Thurston, of Suver, was doing business in Monmouh Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas T. Coates were the recipients of a baby girl last Saturday.

Abstracts promptly furnished at reasonable rates, by L. D. Brown, Dallas, Oregon. tf

Mrs. M. Morrison, of Eugene, arrived here last Friday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. D. M. Hewitt and will remain for some time.

Misses Meldora Jackson, Cora Rossitter and Ethel Lucas left last Friday for Newport for a two or three weeks outing at the seashore.

J. W. White was thrown from a wagon while loading grain last week, receiving injury sufficiently severe to lay him off work. The accident was the result of a young horse starting up too quickly.

Mrs. M. Cornelius departed for Portland Monday to order her fall stock of millinery. She went by Salem where her daughter, Helen, will remain during her absence. Both are expected home tomorrow.

Messrs. Murdock and Prime expect to have their moving picture show installed and in operation by September 1st. The apparatus has been ordered and the building is about ready for occupancy. In ordering pictures for the show none but those of an uplifting and educational character will be used. Nothing of an immoral or degrading nature will be countenanced. The management intend to start right and keep right.

Try the Pride of Walla Walla Hard Wheat Flour. Every sack guaranteed. Get it of Morlan & Son. 48-4t.

Mr. L. R. French, of Independence, started Sunday for Eastern Oregon, where he has business which will detain him for a week or ten days.

Burt Guin, manager of the Young hop-yard, was in Monmouth last week looking for pickers. He obtained the promise of 62 from this place.

We gave Independence a short visit Saturday and noticed that paving on Main street was being carried forward quite rapidly, the work being done with cement.

W. H. Lucas and family, who have been associated with Monmouth interests for some years past, took their departure Tuesday for E. Bogert's fruit farm some seven miles South of Salem, where Mr. Lucas will take charge as manager. Ethel and Elva, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lucas expect to spend the coming winter in Dallas, the former having secured a position as teacher in a near by school and the latter will attend the Dallas school.
