L. D. Brown, Attorney-at-law Notary Public, Abstractor, Dallas, Oregon.

The railroad strike has not affected freight traffic here yet, as Monmouth merchants are still getting their freight regularly.

E. J. Steele has rented the M. N. Suver place, at Suver, and Mr. Suver and family will move to Salem soon.

Joseph Craven has had a comfortable looking fire place constructed in his new house which gives it a cozy appearance.

Dr. F. R. Bowersox and W. R. Coulter were Salem visitors last Friday night being in attendance at the Elk lodge at that place.

Henry Portwood had the value of his residence property enhanced, this week, by having a concrete walk constructed in front of it.

Rev. K. H. Sickafoose, of Mosier, a brother of H. K. Sickafoose, was here Sunday in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. H. K. Sickafoose.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Chaney and daughter visited friends in McMinnville Friday returning home Sunday evening. Mr. Chaney visited the Lafayette nursery during his trip.

Rev. W. A. Gueffroy went to Kings Valley, some fifteen miles above Airlie, last Saturday to preach the funeral of Thelma Cave, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Cave.

Mrs. H. K. Sickafoose Passes Away.

Death has again entered our midst, but this time without warning.

Last Friday evening between five and six o'clock Mrs. H. K. Sickafoose fell dead at her home. She had done her washing in the forenoon and at noon she told her husband she felt quite well. In the afternoon she was out on the streets and at a neighbors attending to some business. When her husband returned from his work about five o'clock she told him to get some wood and she would pare some potatoes and get supper then she had some work for him to do.

Mr. Sickafoose went to get some wood and soon he heard her call to him in a tone of voice that caused him to think something was wrong or very unusual so he immediately started in the house and just as he entered the outside door of the kitchen she fell in the door that leads into the diningroom. When he entered her life was extinct.

Death was caused, it is thought, from the bursting of a blood vessel on the brain.

The funeral services were held at the Christian church, Sunday at two o'clock P. M., conducted by her pastor, W. A. Wood. The interment was in the Knights of pythias cemetery, according to the burial Ritual of the Rebekah Order of which she was a very active member.

She came with her husband to Oregon, from Michigan, about four years ago.

She and her husband are held in very high esteem by the people of Monmouth, and Mr. Sickafoose has the sympathy of his many friends.

Cut Foot nearly Off.

A little, six-year-old boy while playing in the grass near the house, at the Japanese hop yard near this city, jumped upon a piece of a broken bottle and cut his foot over half off. It is certain that the boy would have died had it not been for the efforts of one of the Japanese at the ranch, who, when he saw the condition of things, corded the boy's leg and prevented any further loss of blood. The Japanese had attended a medical school in Portland.—Independence Enterprise.

Wade & Co. Sold Out.

The hardware firm of R. M. Wade & Co. has sold to J. D. Hibbs & Co. The firm will be managed personally by Mr. J. D. Hibbs, a man who is widely known throughout the business circles of the state. He is directly from Portland but has conducted a general merchandise business in Gaston, Oregon, since 1896.

Mr. Hibbs is associated with his son, Mr. J. H. Hibbs and his son-in-law, Mr. A. L. Thomas, formerly assistant cashier of the Forest Grove National Bank.

R. M. Wade's store, under the conservative management of Mr. W. E. Craven, has done a good business in this city for a number of years and it is with regret that Mr. Craven has been removed from this place. He is contemplating going to California although he is still undecided as to what plan he will follow.—Independence Enterprise.
