

Independence Will Have a Veterinary Surgeon.

Dr. L. W. Horn, a graduate of the Chicago Veterinary College, has come to Independence and has taken offices in the Independence Livery barn. Dr. Horn comes directly from the east and comes with the recommendation of Dr. Morell, State Veterinary.

Independence has been in need of a veterinary ever since Dr. Mills left, and Dr. Horn, prepared as he is with the best of surgical instruments, and prepared for the work by a course in one of the best Veterinary Colleges in the country and having had years of experience, should, in this field, do a good work. —Independence Enterprise.

The college farm at O. A. C. has just been promised a gift of a Studebaker "three and a quarter" farm wagon, painted in the college colors, orange and black, from Mr. Weaver, manager of the Studebaker Wagon Works, who visited the college on the Portland Business Men's Club auto tour.

Claims Allowed.

Claims allowed at the October term of commissioners' court, Polk County, Oregon, except salary claims.
