Dr. Lowe, the well known optician, will be in Dallas, January 24 and 25, and in Independence January 26. Do not miss this opportunity to have your eyes fitted with glasses.

Ed Huber spoiled the lounging place in the post office this week by deftly nailing up a few boards fitted for the purpose. We suspect that Postmaster Wolverton was behind the scheme. It is a good job well done.

The Southern Pacific has been making changes lately. Newberg gets an extra service out of Portland, while there has been a change made in the place of starting for the evening train to Dallas, the service for which place now starts from the union depot coming down the East side and crossing at Oswego. The evening train arrives here at 8 o'clock.

Basket Ball Saturday Night.

The basket ball schedule did not turn out as arranged for last week. The Salem high school seems to have had chilly feet and failed to show up, not even sending a phone of their change of heart.

The Dallas high school was reported as over anxious to secure a game on next Saturday night, but their ardor became chilled when they learned that the Monmouth high school boys were more than anxious to meet them.

Craven's basket tossers are an exceptionally fast bunch of high school players, and it seems difficult to secure games for them.

Don't miss the game Saturday night.

Alva Craven visited Independence Wednesday.

The V. F. Daniel store is invoicing this week.

Zook the Painter, will hang your paper for you.

J. W. White gave Independence a business call Wednesday.

Rev. W. A. Gueffroy was a Portland visitor Tuesday returning home the same day.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

On the evening of February 9 the Monmouth debating team will entertain and endeavor to defeat the Dallas team. On the same evening the negative team will debate with Independence. We are hoping that Monmouth may be able to win the Seymour Cup.

At the Laurean program last week Mr. Butler and Miss Ewing were present and addressed the societies. We are always glad to have Mr. Butler with us and enjoy his talks greatly. Miss Ewing in her address especially urged more school spirit in the High School.

The High School students were rather disappointed Friday evening when the Salem basket ball team failed to appear but a very good game was witnessed between the High School and a pick-up team in which the latter was defeated.

Arrangements are being made for purchasing new song books.
