The Jubilee Singers

The Jubilee Singers have come and gone leaving the memory of their passing in the minds of those who heard them.

To say that this company of Hams descendants can sing like birds would hardly expressive of the art they display to the audiences they greet, as they have proven that they can imitate almost anything, and that the large house which greeted them at this place was well pleased with the entertainment was evidenced by the applause and repeated encore.

This is the first of a series of four entertainments undertaken by the faculty of the Normal School assisted by the Commercial Club, and the parties moving in the premises can congratulate themselves upon the success of the first part of their venture.

Citizens Meeting Called
