THE LIBERAL

T. M. FRENCH, Prop.,

SUCCESSOR TO

STRICKLER & MURDOCK

Personal and Local

Ralph Collins, of Suver, was trading in Monmouth Wednesday.

Jesse Windham who works on the Clark Hembree farm has treated himself to a nobby buggy from Winegar & Lorence.

Wisconsin has decided in favor of La Follette first, last and all the time to the exclusion of President Taft and the Colonel.

Graham & Son have further added to their livery business by the purchase of one of those new wagons Winegar & Lorence just received.

Mesdames John Hildebrand, Ed Steele and C. W. Stewart visited their sister, Mrs. C. Kays of Salem, this week, one of her daughters being ill.

E. E. Pinkerton of Ashland, Oregon, is in Monmouth looking for a residence, with the purpose in view of moving here to attend the Normal school.

The Beavers got worsted in the opening game of baseball with the Angels at Los Angeles, Tuesday. However, Oregon will "root" for the Beavers.

Samuel Morrison and his brother Will have purchased the Gray place two miles South of Monmouth. Sam was all right as a butcher and ought to succeed as a farmer.

Doc Bowersox and B. F. Baker went fishing last Monday. They returned in the evening with about 60 trout, and we learned that it was about a four-to-one proposition; but the ins and outs of a nimrod are past finding out and there might have been a small boy in the case at four cents apiece for his catch. However they could convince even a man from Missouri.

Thomas Boulden has just received a carload of feed from Corvallis.

W. W. Bailey, of Brownsville, Oregon, was looking around Monmouth, Wednesday.

Frank Morrison and E. A. Rhoten, newspapermen from Salem, were in Monmouth Wednesday.

J. C. Mobe and W. E. Wilson from some part of the East are here visiting acquaintances and looking around.

The Monmouth band boys will come out in uniforms in the near future. Good appearance as well as good music is their slogan. The uniforms are ordered.

Vernon Brown has purchased a fine horse and buggy and is now in a position to propose—a pleasant drive to some agreeable companion.

The Odd Fellows Social

The basket social given by the Odd Fellows, Wednesday evening was a great success both socially and financially. There were over one hundred persons present, some from other places, Salem, Independence and other towns being represented. The best price given for a basket was $5.75. All enjoyed the occasion.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Seniors are very busy now preparing for a hard-times social which they are going to give Friday night April 12. They are preparing a program which we are sure will be enjoyed by all. They suggest that ladies wear their calico dresses and gentlemen their hard time clothes.

The Alumni Benefit entertainment Monday night was heartily enjoyed by all present, it being a very un que April fool party.

The following program will be rendered Friday by the Laurean

Society: Roll Call—quotations; Missing links, Dwight Quisenberry; Duet, Ruth Murdock and Gertrude Heffley; Current events, Nellie Kurre; Reading, John Weber; Address, Rev. Wood; Vocal Solo, Artie Burkhead; A visit to the country, Loette Shore; Baritone Solo, Russel Quisenberry; A visit to city, Stanley Evans; Selection, T. S. Orchestra; Critic's Report, Miss Jackson.

Miss Doughty, one of the High School teachers is sick this week. She is greatly missed by all.

Those appearing at Monday morning Rhetoricals were Gladys Putman, Ida Strong, Clares Powell and Gladys Thompson.

The second of the series of High School debates took place last Friday night. This was the last of the season's debates and to Monmouth people an extremely interesting one. The Polk County High School Debating League was organized three years ago by County School Superintendent Seymour who offered a handsome cup to the school who should win the most number of points in a series of two debates to be held each year. Those schools who have entered the league are; Falls City, Bethel, Dallas, Independence, Perrydale, Ballston and Monmouth. The Seymour cup was first won by Falls City High School and last year by Dallas High School. This year the Monmouth High School students have succeeded in winning the cup.
