Returned From Trip Through Eastern Oregon.

G. W. Sullivan and James Goodman returned home last Friday from a trip through Eastern Oregon. From here they drove south until within a few miles of the boundary line between Oregon and California and passed Northward from Lakeview to The Dalles from which place they took a steamer for Portland.

Mr. Sullivan reports a very pleasant trip and that they passed through and saw some excellent country, but that he saw nothing that was still vacant that had attraction enough to induce him to locate, for the present, at least, although he is well pleased with his trip.

Mr. Sullivan's shepherd dog made the trip with them but met with disaster at the finish of the journey as he was run over and killed by an auto just as they were entering the city on their return.

Sunday School Class Entertains.

The boys' class, "The Builders," of the Evangelical Sunday school, entertained the girls' class, "The Excelsior," at the home of Miss Marie Smith, Tuesday evening, June 4th.

"The Builders" held their business meeting and the following officers were elected: George McClellan, president; Harrison Brant, vice president; Elmer Konkey, secretary and treasurer. "The Excelsior" class then held their business meeting and the following officers were elected: Lilly Crapson, president; Edna Parks, vice president; Marie Smith, secretary; Velma Heffley, treasurer, and Susie Crapson, reporter. The business meetings being adjourned, games were participated in by all. Later delicious ice cream and cakes were served by the boys. A delightful time was the vote of every one present.

Injured By Gopher Gun.

By the accident discharge of a gopher gun, Mr. Fox, living near Rickreall, now has one less finger and thumb than a week ago. While he was investigating the workings of the critter it exploded, with serious effect. The trouble occurred on Friday.—Dallas Observer.
