J. B. Stump's great Jersey cow Pauline Le Cornu is now in a year's authenticated test, which began just thirty-two days from date of calving. Her second week she produced a very little under twenty-five pounds of eighty-five per cent butter. Her highest day she gave fifty-six pounds of milk and 3.58 pounds butter, showing that at that time her milk tested a little less than six per cent. The cow is not being forced, but is on ordinary rations.—Rural Spirit.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The executive committee of the republican national committee which will manage Taft's campaign was announced this afternoon by National Chairman Hilles. It includes Ralph Williams, of Polk county, Oregon. Williams, with S. A. Perkins, of Tacoma, another member of the committee, will manage the Pacific coast campaign. The place for the Pacific coast headquarters was not selected.

Girl Shot in Thigh While Out For Walk.

LEBANON, Or., July 23.—Miss Alice Carpenter, a young teacher of this city, met with a very painful accident on Sunday. She was on her way from one of the neighbors to her boarding place in company with another girl who was carrying a 22 rifle. The weapon was dragged on the ground when it was discharged, the ball striking Miss Carpenter in the thigh, ranging upward and lodging in the muscle. Dr. Wilson was called from Sweet Home and removed the bullet. Miss Carpenter will have to lay off from school while the wound heals.
