But Taking a Vacation.

And So Are We

BUT

There's still somebody left to look after your wants.

THE LIBERAL

T. M. FRENCH, Prop.

Monmouth,

Oregon

Local and Personal NEWS FROM COUNTY SEAT

Miss Carlotta Crowley returned home Wednesday from a visit to the coast at Newport.

B. F. Whiteaker received a very severe stroke of paralysis while at Independence last Monday.

Eph Young and wife, of McNary Station, and Messrs. Palmer and Pierce, of Salem, returned Monday from a visit to Newport.

Mrs. Erickson and daughter, Lela, arrived here, from Hood River, Wednesday evening to take up their residence in their new house on Broad street.

E. Pinkerton was a Salem visitor Wednesday. He left here yesterday, with his family, for Ashland. Mr. Pinkerton will teach school at Cisna Station this winter.

The HERALD is in need of ready cash and, hence, will send out statements to subscribers who are in arrears, and we will esteem it a favor if these statements receive prompt attention. The price of the HERALD is small, yet if a couple of hundred persons hand in a year's subscription it amounts to a nice little sum to us and helps keep the paper alive. We would also appreciate new subscriptions.

Straw Voting.

P. E. Chase is conducting a straw voting contest at the Normal Variety Store to determine presidential preference. So far there have been 44 votes cast the result being as follows:

For Woodrow Wilson, 22; Taft, 11; Roosevelt, 8; Debs, 2; and Chapin, 1.

The polls will be open for some time, so call in and register your choice.
