Shower Parties for Monmouth Young Lady.

On Friday evening, of last week, a can shower was given to Miss Dora Murdock, at her home, by the Monmouth girls. About twenty were present and Miss Murdock received a number of jars of different kinds of fruit. After several songs were sung by Miss Lora Craven and piano music by Miss Mabel Johnson the girls cut the cake to see who would be fortunate enough to get the ring and Miss Marie Morlan proved to be the lucky one.

On Monday evening, of this week, the Rebekahs tendered Miss Murdock a miscellaneous shower at the home of the Misses Maggie and Allie Butler, there being between twenty to thirty present. Miss Murdock was the recipient of a number of nice and useful presents. The evening was very pleasantly spent in conversation. After the cake was cut, little Helen Cornelius capturing the ring, dainty refreshments were served. Both occasions were very enjoyable affairs.
