Dr. Foster and wife drove here from Albany Sunday taking Miss Tena Brown home with them for a weeks' visit.

The Craven Grocery disposed of 25 boxes of peaches Monday forenoon in short order and needed 15 more boxes to supply the demand.

Dr. J. M. Powell, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Powell, is here from Pendleton, Oregon, on a visit to his parents and other relatives.

Kyle French is here from Twin Falls, Idaho, visiting his uncle, T. M. French, and family. He will probably locate somewhere in this part of Oregon.

Miss Elta Portwood has resigned her position in the post office here to take effect September 1st and will go to school this winter. She will try her hand at hop picking.

Clay Hiser left Sunday for Fossil, Oregon, where he will teach school this winter. His friends regret to see him leave but hope to see him back again in the near future.

C. E. Herren gathered up his hop-pickers, Wednesday morning and commenced harvesting his crop. There was a general moving out, the first part of this week, for the hop yards.

The Southern Pacific has shipped in a car load of granite which has been spread upon the tracks in front and to the northward from the depot to facilitate the exchange of baggage between the Salem and Dallas trains.

Mr. J. W. Scott and family had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. Scott's nephew, E. L. Campbell, of San Diego, California, whom he had not met for 37 years. Mr. Campbell left Saturday and will visit relatives at McMinnville before returning home.

Mayor Ira C. Powell returned home Monday from Newport, refreshed by his vacation. He reported a pleasant vacation but that business cares had necessarily cut it short. The rest of his party remained for a few days longer stay at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Grove A. Peterson, of Suver, were in Monmouth trading, last Friday, Mrs. Peterson and her father, Robert Steele, having returned from their visit to the old home in Canada, the preceding Monday. They report having had a very delightful visit.

Dr. Heisley, of Salem, will be in Monmouth Monday, Wednesday and Friday forenoons of each week and will have office at Miss Tena Brown's residence, corner Jackson and Broad streets. Phone, Main 156. Will also give treatment at homes. Chiropractic treatment 25 cents, Osteopathic treatments $2.00. Consultation and examination free.

Miss Elva Lucas, of Dallas, is the guest of Miss Ruby Lorence, this week.

Miss Mabel Ellis, of Independence, was a Monmouth visitor the fore part of the week.

C. R. Bookey has rented a 15-acre tract one and one half miles east of town and has moved his wife and mother there.

A. F. Huber was driving a new horse Wednesday on his mail route. This is one some party wishes to have trained to pull when driven alone. Fred says he has been on the route eight years and this makes the ninety-ninth animal he has driven during this time.

Monmouth was visited by two or three showers of rain Tuesday but they seemed to be local as the rain did not interfere with threshing on the Luckiamute southwest of here neither was there any rain two miles to the northward, but there was a more general distribution next day.

A number of Monmouth young people enjoyed a hay rack party Saturday night. They left town about 8:30 and drove some two miles, where they engaged in various games for some time, after which refreshments were served, then they started homeward having spent a very pleasant evening.

Rev. Osborn brought word to town of an accident to a man who was riding along with a horse quite well loaded, which stumbled in coming down a decline in the road and fell over a wire fence, pinioning the rider, who could not free himself until a boy went and secured aid. Neither rider nor horse were particularly injured.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Newman and Mr. Allen Johnson and wife took quite a trip in Mr. Newman's auto last Sunday visiting a number of towns and calling on Mrs. Johnson's sister near Albany and A. L. Chute and family at Jefferson. On entering Salem they punctured a tire but having an extra one along it was soon replaced. Mr. Johnson says that he saw some nice country that he had never seen before.

Mr. T. M. French's horse caught the toe of its shoe between the rail and a spike in crossing the track at the crossing east of the city, Sunday, in such a manner that the horse fell bending the foot forward. The animal had to be raised upon its feet and the foot slipped sideways before it was loosened. It is a wonder the leg was not broken. However, it will require time to heal the strain as the animal cannot walk on the injured leg.
