Farm House Robbed.

The house owned by John F. Robbins, four and one-half miles north of Independence on the Salem road, was robbed Monday afternoon while the family was absent. The most valuable article missed is Mrs. Robbins' gold watch and chain. Some other articles of smaller value were taken.

It is supposed to have been the work of some knight or knights of the road.—Independence Enterprise.

The Connection.

"The late Professor Corson of Cornell," said a Cornell instructor, "had little sympathy with the freakish philologists of the modern school.

"I once quoted to Professor Corson an extremely interesting and odd analogy that had just been suggested for a Celtic word. He smiled and said that the analogy was about as probable as that which linked fish scales to shingles.

"A little girl, he explained, once asked her mother:

"Are scales fastened on fish like shingles on a roof?"

"Yes, dear," the mother answered.

"They're put on that way, of course," said the little girl, "to keep the fish from leaking."—New York Tribune.

Calmed Her Fears.

A Paris contemporary recalls a story of Mme. Victor Hugo and her three children. One day she had bought them some fruit, but when the time came to distribute it Mme. Hugo discovered that some one had raided the dish considerably. She taxed the children with the speculation, but each stoutly denied the imputation. The mother said, "Well, my dears, I don't mind your eating the apricots, but each has a stone, and if by chance either of you should have swallowed one you will be ill and perhaps die." "Oh, mamma, dear," said the youngest child, Adele, "don't be frightened. I have saved all the stones. They are in my pocket."

America's Greatest Weekly

THE

TOLEDO BLADE

TOLEDO, OHIO,

The Best Known Newspaper in the United States

Circulation 240,000

Popular in Every State

No Whiskey Advertising

The seventy-eighth year of its existence finds the Toledo Blade more popular than at any period during its long and successful career. It is read each week by more than a million people. The Blade's field is national and it goes into every state and territory in the United States, thereby giving it an unquestionable right of claiming to be the greatest national weekly newspaper published in America.

The Weekly Blade is distinctly a family newspaper. The one object of its publishers has always been to make it fit for the American home, for the fire-side, and of interest to every member of the family. To fulfill this purpose it is kept clean and wholesome. The news of the world is handled in a comprehensive manner, and the various departments of The Blade are edited with painstaking care. The Household page is a delight to the women and children; current affairs are treated editorially without prejudice; the serial stories are selected with the idea of pleasing the greatest number of fiction lovers; the Question Bureau is a scrap-book of information; the Farmstead columns are conducted with the purpose of giving the patrons a medium for the exchange of ideas and information on farm topics. No department is neglected, but every feature is taken care of with the idea of making The Blade worth many times the price of subscription—one dollar a year.
