

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Watch for Raffles.
 J. W. McLean, of Eugene, was in this city Monday.
 Allen Johnson has moved into his new residence on Clay street.
 J. L. Murdock had business which took him to Portland last Wednesday.
 Dr. Bowersox was in the neighborhood of Suver Tuesday on a hunting trip.
 V. M. Arphe, of Corvallis, registered in Monmouth Saturday of last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hinman and child, of Dallas, visited Monmouth friends Sunday.
 Wall paper patterns change each season. We have no old stock. PERKINS PHARMACY.
 C. E. Reinhart, a shoe drummer, of Salem, was doing business in Monmouth yesterday.
 Harold Hanson and Fred Olsen, of Chitwood, Lincoln county, were in Monmouth Wednesday.
 News from Edgar Sacre is to the effect that he is recovering nicely from the injuries received from falling.
 J. L. Murdock's cottage on Knox street is finished and is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ebbie Ebbert.
 Arthur R. Allen was in Monmouth yesterday soliciting the good graces of voters. He has aspirations to be assessor of Polk county.
 J. W. Leask and S. R. Walker secured the jobs of constructing some concrete crossings for the city. Mr. Leask has four and Mr. Walker three to put in.
 Now that the long evenings must be spent indoors, would it not be more pleasant if your walls were freshly papered? Neat patterns to be had at PERKINS PHARMACY.
 C. C. Lee went to Crabtree last week and purchased a cow which his cousin, Mr. Crabtree, helped him to bring home. As Mr. Lee is not a dairyman this purchase is just a little suggestive.
 Mrs. A. M. Arant laid the HERALD office under obligation the latter part of last week by presenting it with a bouquet of exquisite dahlias, of her own raising, for which she has the thanks of the HERALD force.
 Mr. V. Dell Butler, of Portland, joined his wife here Friday evening and both returned to their home Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Butler's cousin, Miss Edith Whitehead, who is on her way home to Michigan, having spent some time visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Newman.
 Mrs. O. C. Zook presented the HERALD office with two very large quince, the larger of which measured 13 3-8 by 12 1-2 inches in circumference. We presume there are plenty more as large as this specimen, but these are the largest we have ever seen.
 Louis Murdock finished the concrete sidewalk along F. E. Murdock's property on Broad street, Wednesday, this being his first attempt at sidewalk construction. He was somewhat chagrined on Wednesday morning to find his work tracked up by human foot marks and dogs. He said that he didn't mind the dog tracks as they did not know any better. He erased the marks as best he could and on the whole has done a very good job.
 Zook the Painter, will hang your paper for you.

Mrs. C. L. Marks gave Portland a visit last week.
 J. L. Prime has built an additional room to his residence.
 P. H. Johnson's new house on Ecels street is ready for occupancy.
 The Star Theater promises us something good tonight and tomorrow night.

 Warren Guiliams left Monday, for Red Bluffs, California, where he intends to locate.
 Improve your property by putting in a fine sidewalk. Inspect J. W. Leask's work, then consult him. tf
 The hole in the window may cause you to catch cold. Glass cut to any size at the PERKINS PHARMACY.
 Misses Blanche Stitt, Cora Green and Tena Brown spent Sunday afternoon on the river near Independence.
 Letters received by Monmouth friends from Mr. L. A. Robinson, a former instructor in the state normal school, brings the information that he is in Porto Rico, connected with the normal department of the university of Porto Rico.
 Messrs. J. W. White and sons, Earl and Orvil, also Mrs. Orvil White, went into the Alsea country last week and expect to return the latter part of this week. Mr. J. W. White went to look at some land while the boys are out for a hunt.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. Donnelly arrived Tuesday from Joseph, Oregon, and are visiting Mrs. Donnelly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hampton, and other relatives. Mr. Donnelly will return home in a week or ten days leaving his wife for an extended visit.
 Allen Nott's nephew, of McMinnville, accompanied by his wife and child, and her sister, Mrs. Effie Martin, of Olex, Oregon, visited our city Wednesday in an automobile. They returned to McMinnville in the evening taking Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nott with them.
 W. J. Mulkey returned home Friday evening having visited the Round-up at Pendleton, from which place he visited his daughters at Washtucna, Wash., and also visited Spokane, Wash. He reports a fine trip, but that when he got to Pendleton and looked the "bucking broncos" over he concluded to let the other fellows do the riding.

When you buy R. C. Can Goods you BUY Quality. Quality is the foundation upon which my business is built.

These is a common fallacy that anything bought at a low price is bought cheaply. This belief is unsound. True economy consists not in what you pay, but in what you get for your money.
