Local and Personal

Zook the Painter, will hang your paper for you.

T. M. French disposed of his new cash register this week to H. Portwood.

Miss Eleanor Portwood has been quite ill for some days past but is somewhat better as we go to press.

The hole in the window may cause you to catch cold. Glass cut to any size at the PERKINS PHARMACY.

Allen Clark received a pair of shoes by parcel post last Saturday, from the Sears & Roebuck Company.

Mrs. H. C. Ostien will leave today for Des Moines, Iowa, to visit her sister who is sick. She will be absent about six weeks.

C. H. Lippfert, of Los Angeles, California, who is traveling for the Berkeley Soap Co., spent Saturday and Sunday with Joseph Craven and family, leaving on Monday.

J. L. Murdock and wife made a trip to Portland, Tuesday, for the purpose of looking up a location. He expects to remove with his family, to that city about the first of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carmichael and children went to Portland Sunday. Mr. Carmichael returned home Tuesday leaving his wife to visit her mother until the last of the week.

At the Baptist church Sunday the topics will be, for the morning service, "The Householder," and for the evening service, "The False Balance." Rev. G. A. Pollard will again be with us. All have a cordial invitation, and at the evening service the unconverted are especially urged to be present.

Miss Tena Brown spent Wednesday assisting her brother in his drug store at Independence.

Now that the long evenings must be spent indoors, would it not be more pleasant if your walls were freshly papered? Neat patterns to be had at PERKINS PHARMACY.

Z. A. French, now of Airline, recently had a little unusual experience, which shows the rapidity of Uncle Sam's oil. In 1902, at Earlham, Iowa, Mr. French marked a dollar, which was made in the year of the birth of his youngest boy, with the boy's initial and a cross. Recently in paying some freight at the depot, he received this dollar in change.

Monmouth Girl Stars In Basket Ball Game.

The following clipping from the Arlington paper in Eastern Oregon, gives great credit to Mildred Force, a former high school student here, in a basket ball game between the Arlington and The Dalles high school teams:

The Arlington High School girls' basket ball team defeated The Dalles High School girls in a fast and exciting game here Saturday night by a score of 13 to 10. Mildred Force was the star for the locals, while Crystal Bennett was star for The Dalles.

Evangelical Church.

There will be communion services at the Evangelical church next Sunday morning, in charge of the pastor. The morning subject will be, "This do in Remembrance of Me," and the evening subject, "After Death—What?" Special music. Those who have no church affiliation in the city are especially invited.

W. A. Gueffroy, Pastor.

Thirteen Chickens From Thirteen Eggs.

Mrs. John Hiltbrand, of the Luckiamute, has no faith in the theory that 13 is an unlucky number. On the 13th of January 1913, one of her industrious hens came off the nest with 13 little chickens hatched from 13 eggs. The hen commenced work with the 13 eggs on Christmas day.—Independence Enterprise.

Louis L. Guilliams Dead.

A telegram was received Monday that Louis L. Guilliams, oldest son of S. N. Guilliams, and brother of Mrs. Nettie Boche, died Dec. 18th at the Pacific Hospital, Los Angeles, California, of pneumonia. He left a wife and one little girl, besides his father, two sisters and four brothers, to mourn his loss. He was a former resident of Monmouth, but left here for Los Angeles about three years ago.
