

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Zook, the paper hanger, will do your painting for you.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stewart were trading in town Tuesday.

Daily Telegram $3.50 a year. Subscribe at the HERALD office.

Buy your split and sawed cedar posts from the Monmouth Lumber yard. 20 tf

Mrs. R. Andersen, who has been sick for some time, is again able to be out.

Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstracters, 610 Mill Street, Dallas, Oregon.

Cy Coates is putting in his concrete sidewalk on West Main street this week.

Mr. L. D. Mulkey came up from Amity and spent the week-end with his family.

Wall paper patterns change each season. We have no old stock. PERKINS PHARMACY.

Mrs. W. A. Ragsdale and daughter were over from Salem Sunday visiting relatives here.

George Winters left for his home in Kings Valley Wednesday morning for a few days visit.

Monmouth Lumber yard will furnish you all kinds of building material at prices that are right.

A box of bon bons free tomorrow night to the party buying the most tickets at the Star Theater.

Mrs. Davis arrived Tuesday from Willows, California, to visit her daughter, Miss Grace Davis, who is one of the Normal teachers.

Dr. E. C. Wigmore, who preaches the Baccalaureate sermon next Sunday morning, will preach at the Christian church at the evening services.

Superintendent Sullivan, who has charge of the water system, has nearly enough water in the reservoir to test out the system. It lacks only a foot or so as we go to press and should be full by the time this appears.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Haskinson, of Kent, Oregon, arrived here Sunday, being on their return home from an extended visit in the East and South. They will visit here for some time with Mrs. Haskinson's brother, D. M. Hampton, and other relatives.

N. E. Eldridge, butter maker, and C. Lee, milk and cream tester, at the Independence Creamery, visited Mr. R. Andersen, of the creamery here, Sunday. Mr. Andersen was formerly employed as butter maker at the Independence creamery. The boys declared Mr. Andersen had his creamery in usual tip-top order.

A wild tale comes from the west end of town about one W. J. M. having made arrangements with one J. B. V. to move his residence on higher territory, to avoid the rush caused by defective plugs. We are not advised as to the veracity of the rumor but it has a G-gasoline scent attached, and everybody knows who gave the town folk gasoline to drink.

Our friend Griffa has been suffering from lagrippe the past few days and we can sympathize with him on that count, but he concluded he needed a compound, a tonic if you please, but preferred doing the mixing himself; however, the M. D. wouldn't stand for that, and a bitter dose it is to take, so now our afflicted friend is gripping and nipping, and—well—the deacon should have a look-in; most likely he needs sympathy; however, he is on the improve.

Glen Prime, of Salem, spent Sunday night with relatives.

Weekly Oregonian for 75 cents a year. Subscribe at the HERALD office.

Abstracts promptly made by Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstracters.

FOR SERVICE—A full blood Jersey bull, at W. G. Heffley's place. $1.50. tf

The Star Theater is giving 25 votes with each ticket on the Monitor contest.

Miss Lena Brown, of the Luckiamute, was doing business in town Wednesday.

Thomas Eck, of Luckiamute Station, was doing business in Monmouth Wednesday.

Miss Dora Zook was home the fore part of the week from Suver where she has been staying for some time.

The Dallas sawmill started cutting lumber again Monday having been shut down a month for repairs.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs gave the Murdock family a farewell reception Monday night. A pleasant occasion was reported.

C. P. Cornwell returned home Monday evening from Portland where he has been learning to run, repair and care for automobiles.

Miss Mary Haines, who has been sick for some time, is getting better. Miss Eleanor Portland is still quite sick but is no worse than she was a week ago.

A. N. Poole has purchased a lot on Catron street and is getting ready to build a four room bungalow on his property. He is putting up a woodshed on the lot at present.

Grant Wolverton, of Calgary, Alberta, Canada, was the guest of his brother, O. A. Wolverton, here, leaving for Portland Tuesday on his way home. He had been to California.

Miss Elizabeth Carothers, a missionary to Siam and a former graduate of the Oregon State Normal, came Wednesday of last week and will remain until after commencement, being the guest of her cousin, Mrs. F. R. Bowersox.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lorence, January 29, 1913, a son. Mother and child are doing well, but Ed absents himself from his place of business and it is whispered around that he is lingering near that boy to hear it lisp the word so dear to his heart—father.

Among the changes made this week was the removal of J. L. Murdock and family, who left Wednesday for their new home at 275 East 72nd street, North, Portland. While Mr. Murdock will still be interested in the Monmouth Creamery business. In the removal of the family elsewhere Monmouth sustains a loss, especially in the city council, of which Mr. Murdock was an active member.

Prune Trees For Sale.

I have 1375 Italian prune trees for sale at ten cents each. Trees can be seen at H. S. Hinkle's place.

W. B. RAMSEY.

One More Chance

to see

"The Prison on the Cliff"

tonight at the

Star Theater

Also

"Pa's Medicine"

A comedy and a good one.

THE

Weekly Oregonian

The best Weekly Journal of the Northwest. Gives all the News of the World.

Price per year.....$1.50
Herald one year.....1.00
Booth papers for.....2.00

JAMES HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

JAMES HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

New Spring Goods

arriving this week at the

V. F. Daniel Store.

MONMOUTH,

OREGON

FLOUR

Well I guess we've got it; the best on the market today.

"High Flight," made from only pure, blue stem wheat, (exclusive sale), per sack - $1.60
Our famous "Highland Blend," better than "Fisher's Blend," - $1.50
Our fancy Prize Peach hard wheat - $1.40
Our fancy Pride of Oregon soft wheat - $1.20
„Western Star Blend," home product, hard wheat, $1.50
"Success," home product, soft wheat - $1.25

None better than "Royal Club Coffee."

1 pound 45c. 3 pound can for $1.25. Steel cut.
Magnolia Blend 35c. Three pounds for $1.00

A good 25 and 30c Coffee in stock.

A. H. CRAVEN,

Monmouth, - - - Oregon

POULTRY SUPPLY STORE

THOMAS BOULDEN, Proprietor

KEEPS ON SALE

Best Grade Chic Feed.

Best Grade Grit, Bone and Oyster Shell.

Best Grade Bran, Shorts, Barley and Oats.

Best Grade Corn, Scrath Feed, Egg Food,

at Lowest Cash Prices. Also, Rooms for Rent

Will Pay Cash for Eggs and Poultry.

Monmouth, - - - Oregon