Miss Edith Wolverson came over from Dallas Sunday morning and spent a few hours with relatives.

T. M. French returned home Friday evening from Vancouver, Wash., where he had been looking after some property.

Mrs. E. M. Young, of McNary Station, was here Monday on a visit to her mother, Mrs. A. Shore, and her sisters, Loette and Gaynelle.

Mrs. Omer Murphy, of Independence, died Sunday night and was buried Tuesday. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn the loss of wife and mother. Mrs. C. G. Griffa, of this place, attended the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bowman, of Albany, visited Miss Pearl Davidson Saturday remaining over Sunday. They called on ye editor and family having been acquainted at Bandon, also on other acquaintances here and visited relatives at Dallas Monday from which place they intended going to Salem, then home.

The Freshmen had a "feed" east of the school building Friday night.

This week the debaters were chosen to enter the County League. They are Misses Ruby Lorence and Neta Waller; Messrs. Russel Quisenberry and John Webber.

Prof. Livingston has made a standing offer of $1 to any one who will tell him the author of the following: Comrades in the Quest—The Godlike Power to Know, the Godlike Power to Do. He has, during the last year, spoken to the prominent men of the Northwest, concerning the maxim, but without result. Pres. Ackerman has said to him that it has developed out of an inter-conscious mind.

Several cases of la grip are reported, and heterophemy is also becoming quite prevalent among the students of the high school, but it is hoped that they will recover soon and be able to continue good high school work.

The Seniors are said to have had an enjoyable party last Friday night.

A student body meeting was held Monday afternoon and some good oratory was shown.

The high school piano fund is a thing of the past, as the money will be used for some other purpose.

School started Monday with the program and Good English period somewhat changed.

An altruistic citizen contributed a fine plant to the high school, this week, which is much appreciated by the students.

The students are looking forward to the baseball season. The school garden proposition is not so rushing but baseball grounds are, as baseball is important and a necessity. The students can have gardens at home, if they so desire, and it is thought that when a choice between the two comes, baseball will be unanimously adopted.

The students were recently reading the famous book of Helen Keller but for some reason it has been discontinued.

Representatives of book companies were here last week.

The matter of having a program Friday night was taken up before the student body meeting Monday afternoon but the decision was put into the hands of the committee which acted Tuesday afternoon and stated it was on too short a notice to have a program, as suggested by Prof. Livingstone. It was postponed indefinitely, and it was regretted that there would not be an occasion on which the parents of the district would meet and talk over the school prospects for a garden with the principal.

Everybody Notice.

Notice is hereby given to all residents within the corporate limits of the city of Monmouth not to let their poultry run at large. There is an ordinance forbidding the running at large of all kinds of fowls at all times and if its provisions are not complied with, the city marshal will act in compliance of the law.

By order of the common council.

D. E. STITT, City Recorder.

Now that the long evenings must be spent indoors, would it not be more pleasant if your walls were freshly papered? Neat patterns to be had at PERKINS PHARMACY.
