

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Such a waste of water.

Buy your split and sawed cedar posts from the Monmouth Lumber yard. 20 tf

Jos. Craven was an Independence visitor the latter part of last week.

J. M. Westfall is recovering from his illness and is expected home soon.

Abstracts promptly made by Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstracters.

For hardware, windowshades, curtain poles and rugs try Aynes hardware store.

C. H. Newman is repapering G. A. Peterson's house on Main and Ecol streets.

J. L. Murdock made this place a business visit Saturday, returning home Sunday.

"Old Trusty" Incubator and Brooder for sale. Enquire of E. R. Ostrom or phone 368.

Wall paper patterns change each season. We have no old stock. PERKINS PHARMACY.

Monmouth Lumber yard will furnish you all kinds of building material at prices that are right.

Vernon Brown was in Monmouth Wednesday displaying the fine qualities of his new buggy horse.

The hole in the window may cause you to catch cold. Glass cut to any size at the PERKINS PHARMACY.

Dr. Bowersox is having the upper rooms in his new house finished up. S. R. Walker is doing the plastering.

Hon. Ira C. Powell and W. R. Graham visited Salem Tuesday evening. They went over in Graham & Son's new auto.

Fremont Wade and family are expected to arrive here from Clem, Oregon, the first of March to make this their home. Mr. Wade will build a residence on his lots in the East side of town.

W. L. Phillips purchased a new wood saw and has gone into the wood-sawing business. The machine is run by a six-horse power gasoline engine and arrived here from Portland this week.

L. J. Murdock and Earl White took down the tower on the South lot the city purchased from C. G. Griffa, during the past week. The city council had the tower removed preparatory to testing the water in the new well.

In testing the water pipes Monday another plug blew out, delaying the test again. The plug which gave way this time was one of those which had been reset. A second break occurred Wednesday afternoon, caused by an accident to the pipe in taking down the old tower, letting all of the water out of the reservoir.

Mrs. E. W. Strong received word Wednesday morning that her mother, Mrs. Watt, had passed away at the old homestead at Beaverton, Ore. Mrs. Watt is also the mother of Senator Watt and was nearly 90 years old. Mrs. Strong left on the afternoon train Wednesday for Beaverton and Mr. Strong went later.

Mrs. Frank Murdock went to Portland Thursday of last week, returning Sunday with her sister, Miss Fahy, who came from Montana to make her an extended visit. While in Portland, Mrs. Murdock visited J. L. Murdock and family, and reports them getting along nicely. They sent their love to Monmouth friends.

Owing to the request of many I have decided to resume my visits to Monmouth. I can be found at the residence of Mrs. Sarah Davis from 1:30 to 3:00. If you are ailing and need treatment come and see me.

DR. E. JAMES SCHEETZ,
Chiropractic-Neuropath.

R. G. Dykstro, of Suver, was in town Wednesday.

J. S. Parker, of Perrydale, was in Monmouth Monday.

W. F. Kincaid, of Lake Brook, is here recuperating, having been injured in an accident.

W. F. Swigert, of McMinnville, was here yesterday in the interest of the Page Woven Wire Fence Co.

W. O. Meador and sons moved to Salem yesterday. Mrs. Meador has been there some time teaching school.

Ed Huber having resigned his position as substitute mail carrier on the rural route at Monmouth, Ben Pollan will fill the vacancy.

Claire Winegar is the happy possessor of a span of goats, imported from Portland, which he is very anxious to get hitched up for driving purposes.

C. W. Leonard, our old townsman, was over from Independence Wednesday. Mr. L. has been having a siege of lagrippe but is about well again.

The legislature at Salem passed 49 bills at a night session Tuesday night, among which was one carrying an appropriation of $10,000 for the State Normal School.

Mrs. E. A. Cone, of Corvallis, and Mrs. S. S. Ewing, of Philomath, were the guests of their sister, Mrs. J. E. Winegar, and family over Sunday, returning to their homes on Monday.

A County Grange was organized on February 18, the delegates from the various granges of the county meeting in Independence. Mr. Frank Laughary was elected Master and Mrs. Nellie U. White, of Rickreall, Secretary.

FOR SALE

Eggs, full blood Ancona, for setting. $1.50 for setting of 15. 24 4t DR. J. O. MATTHIS.

Grand Haven Nursery.

For all kinds of fruit and ornamental trees and berry vines; logan berry especially. Write W. S. BOORMAN, Prop. 22 3t McMinnville, Ore.

Boot and Shoe Repair Shop for Sale.

Having concluded to quit the repair business and look after my farm, I hereby offer my stock of tools and leather, and business, for sale.

Will give possession at once and purchaser will step into a paying trade.

Call on or address, R. H. SIMPSON, 21 4t Monmouth.

At the Star Theater

tonight "Virginus" a two reel feature, and "Dad and Ma" a comic feature, will be put on. No show Saturday night

LADIES HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

LADIES HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

GOOD DRESSING

Formerly The Monthly Style Book

Presenting the Newest

Ladies' Home Journal Patterns.

Thirty Pages Brimful of Spring Styles

And Helpful Suggestions.

Yours for the Taking at the Pattern Counter.

The V. F. Daniel Store

MONMOUTH, . . . OREGON

FLOUR

Well I guess we've got it; the best on the market today.

"High Flight," made from only pure, blue stem wheat, (exclusive sale), per sack - $1.60

Our famous "Highland Blend," better than "Fisher's Blend," - $1.50

Our fancy Prize Peach hard wheat - $1.40

Our fancy Pride of Oregon soft wheat - $1.20

„Western Star Blend," home product, hard wheat, $1.50

"Success," home product, soft wheat - $1.25

None better than "Royal Club Coffee."

1 pound 45c. 3 pound can for $1.25. Steel cut.

Magnolia Blend 35c. Three pounds for $1.00

A good 25 and 30c Coffee in stock.

A. H. CRAVEN,

Monmouth, . . . Oregon

Prune Trees For Sale.

I have 1375 Italian prune trees for sale at ten cents each. Trees can be seen at H. S. Hinkle's place.

W. B. RAMSEY.

FOR SALE.

A Chatham 120-egg capacity incubator and a lampless brooder. Call at residence.

24 4t W. J. Miller, Monmouth.

POULTRY SUPPLY STORE

THOMAS BOULDEN, Proprietor

KEEPS ON SALE

Best Grade Chic Feed. Best Grade Grit, Bone and Oyster Shell. Best Grade Bran, Shorts, Barley and Oats. Best Grade Corn, Scrath Feed, Egg Food, at Lowest Cash Prices.

Garden Seeds in Package or in Bulk.

Will Pay Cash for Eggs and Poultry.

Monmouth, . . . Oregon