

LOCAL AND STATE NEWS

Next Sunday is Easter.

C. A. Nott was a Dallas visitor yesterday.

Zook, the paper hanger, will do your painting for you.

S. P. Green, of Suver, was doing business in town Wednesday.

C. G. Griffa has just received another lot of plumbing supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sullivan were trading in Monmouth Saturday.

Miss Bessie Shepherd, of Newberg, visited friends here over Sunday.

Miss Loraine Johnson visited her mother at Portland the latter part of last week.

FOR SALE—Good, second hand sewing machine. See Mrs. H. E. Guthrie, Monmouth. 2t

The ground hog still keeps in his winter quarters and there is prospect for a snowy Easter.

E. H. Lorence is developing into an artist. See the show window in the Winegar & Lorence store.

C. W. Stewart and Frankie Hiltibrand, from the Luckiamute Station, were doing business in town Wednesday.

Two more violators of the local option law, Jack Miller and Frank Albrecht, got a jail term at Albany, Oregon.

Alva Wise, of Wells, was in Polk county buying dairy stock this week. He passed through Monmouth yesterday.

Rooms to let for light house-keeping or otherwise. Enquire of Mrs. W. H. Mack, corner of East and Jackson streets.

Springfield, Oregon, has passed an ordinance closing theaters at six o'clock Sunday evenings, keeping them closed for the night.

Claud Boothby came down from Portland Saturday on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Boothby, returning next day.

Now that the long evenings must be spent indoors, would it not be more pleasant if your walls were freshly papered? Neat patterns to be had at PERKINS PHARMACY.

The funeral of Robert Orr took place at Derry last Sunday. Deceased was a brother to John W. Orr, of Rickreall, republican nominee for sheriff of Polk county last election.

Harold Herron returned from Portland Monday evening where he had been for several days, taking the examination for an engineer's license which he was successful in getting.

Uncle Joe Craven had a mouse run up his sleeve while in his barn the other day, and his call for help brought Ed. Griffa to his side, who began a systematic hunt for that mouse with such gallant success that the mouse soon had its teeth fastened in Ed.'s finger and now he is pondering as to whether he found the mouse or the mouse found him. Uncle Joe escaped serious damage.

The Polk county farmer is learning the advisability of raising hogs for the market. Wm. Bloch on Thursday shipped from the Independence station 81 head of fine market hogs, to the Union Meat Company. He said to a Monitor representative "hogs are now $9.15 per hundred pounds on foot, 5c per hundred pounds higher than they have ever been." It certainly pays to raise hogs when the market is up like the above.—Monitor.

Mrs. John Grimes is visiting her mother at Salem this week.

Brown & Sibley, attorneys and abstracters, 610 Mill Street, Dallas, Oregon.

S. R. Walker and family have moved to a hop yard some six miles below Salem.

All those who are interested in organizing a town baseball team are requested to meet at the Star Theater next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock sharp.

Louis Murdock and Earl White have been doing some good side walk work. That new cement mixer is all right and the new walk along the railroad grounds looks good to pedestrians.

Five thousand rolls of Wall Paper to select from. Also paints, oils, varnishes, brushes, glass stains, window shades and decorations, carpets and furniture to order at P. H. JOHNSON'S BOOK STORE.

There is an old saying that "Fools names and fools faces are often seen in public places." The lack-witted of Monmouth seem only able to make their "Mark" as you can see about town on the cement walks, notably on Main street, west of College. It surprises us that any girl in Monmouth could leave a foot print which would measure so long.

Oscar and J. C. Hayter returned Saturday from their California tour. Oscar has not been in evidence since the return but "Carey" has been able to entertain those who wish to learn of the climate in California, paving or other matters now of interest to those who live a short way north of the land of oranges and figs—and freckled girls with feet of tan. Carey said it was a regular Maud Muller district.—Dallas Observer.
